Instructions for finding and using Easter Eggs in PUBG Mobile

How to find Lucky Eggs in PUBG Mobile

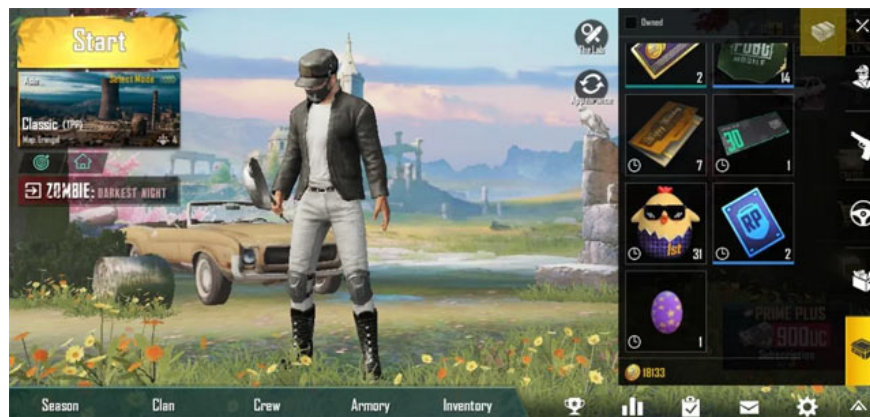

Lucky Eggs is one of extremely rare items and it is difficult to find in PUBG Mobile. Those who own this item are considered the luckiest. Gamers need to hunt around the map to be able to own these Easter eggs.

The experience of many gamers is that the Sanhok map is the easiest place to find Lucky Eggs. They will often hide in the corners of many houses. With the appearance of vivid colors, gamers will easily recognize when scanning a turn around the house.

There is one less thing to know if you defeat the players who are having Lucky Eggs, they will fall out for you to loot. So don't ignore any of the wooden boxes that fall from the enemy you just defeated.

How to use Lucky Eggs to redeem rewards

You can only use these eggs in exchange for the regular part in the Event section, in the Lucky Egg Spring section, the player will see the option to use these eggs to exchange the reward.

Players will have the opportunity to receive 150 to 300 points to battle with 5 eggs in the reward box of this event. If you have 100 eggs, the reward you get will be Pistol, Costume Time or a few coupons to buy other items.

PUBG Mobile's Easter egg event is only a few days away, so try to loot as many eggs as possible in exchange for attractive prizes.
