

How to find songs on 7 music streaming services at the same time

StreamScout will help you find music on 7 popular music streaming services at the same time so you can quickly access the music streaming service you want.

Online music streaming services are now very popular with people bringing you huge music repositories on many different topics. You can choose to stream music services Spotify, Apple Music, Tidal . to find your favorite songs. And if you want, you can also search for songs at 7 music streaming services at the same time, via the StreamScout website. This site will search and quickly synthesize songs found in popular streaming services today. And if you like what kind of music just press to use is. The following article will guide you how to use StreamScout to find music.

Instructions for using StreamScout to find music

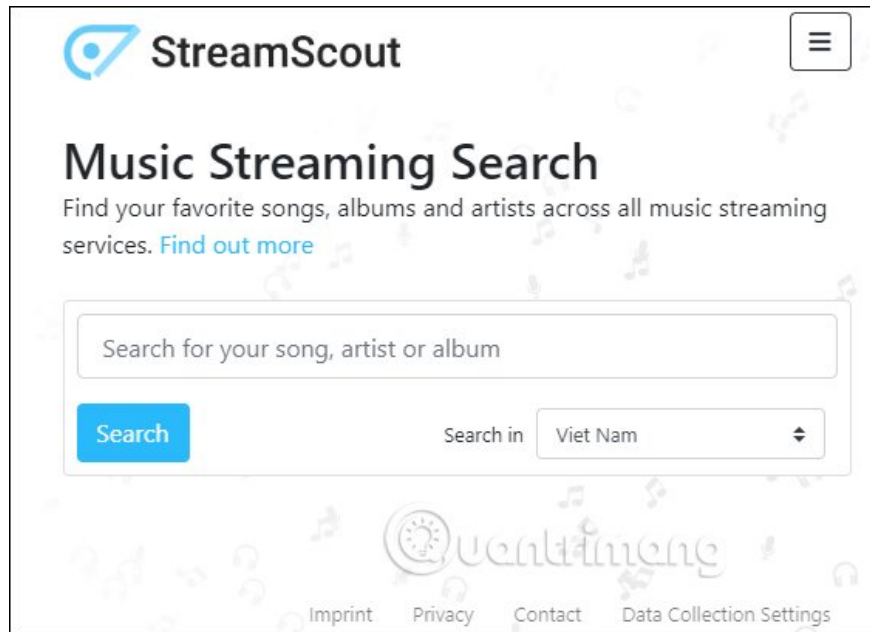

Step 1:

Users access the link below to go to the homepage of StreamScout

<https://stream-scout.com/>

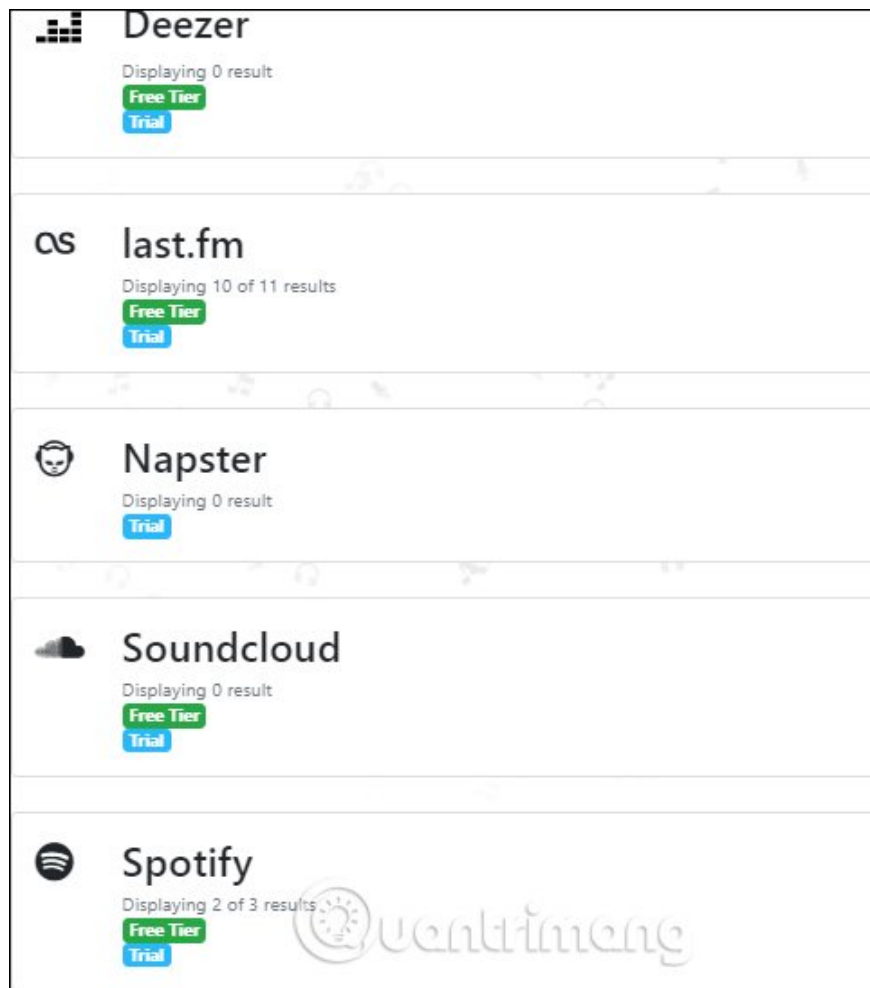

Step 2:

In the homepage interface, you select the search country by clicking on the United States, then enter the name of the song or artist in the search bar above to conduct a search.

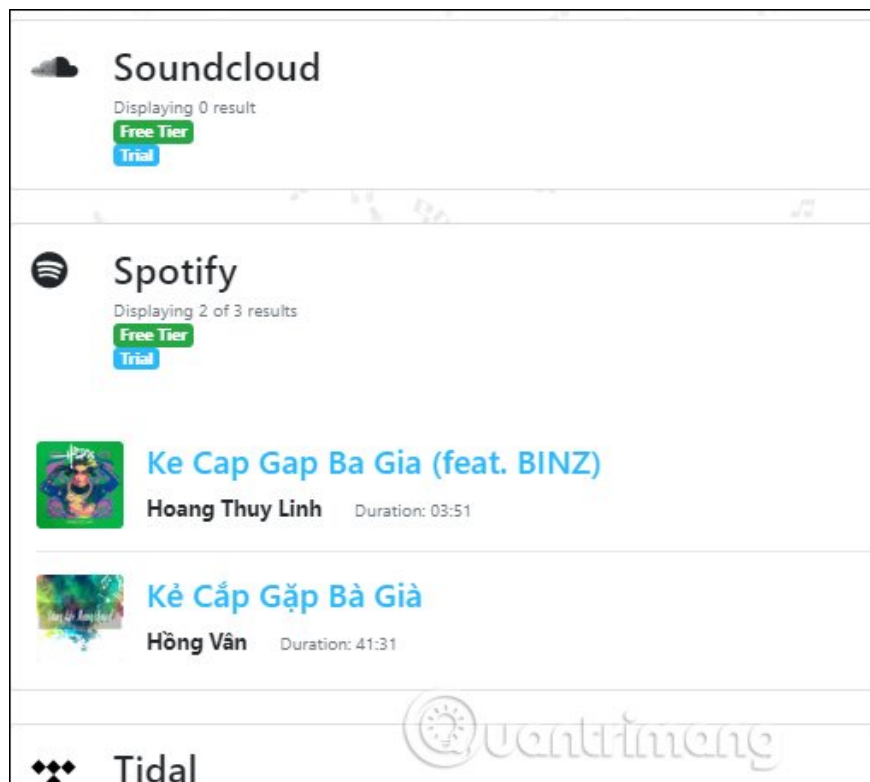

Step 3:

The results will display songs found in 7 music streaming services including Apple Music, Deezer., Last.fm, Napster., SoundCloud., Spotify, Tidal. Services without songs found by the keyword you entered will display 0. If there are results the song will show the number for you to know.

Step 3:

The results show the different songs and you just need to click on a song to go to the music streaming service to listen to music.

You finished reading the article "How to find songs on 7 music streaming services at the same time" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
