

How to get Cursed Dual Katana Blox Fruit

Cursed Dual Katana is a Mythical Sword weapon in Blox Fruit, and of course you have to earn it yourself, it is not in the Blox Fruit code.

Of course, this Cursed Dual Katana was not easily achieved. However, it is not too difficult for you to own this powerful pair of swords. To get the Cursed Dual Katana Blox Fruit, please look at the suggestions below, but the first condition is that you need to reach level 2,200.

First condition to get Cursed Dual Katana Blox Fruit

Before getting the dual swords, you need to own two swords:

1. Tushita
2. Yama

To get Tushita, you need to reach level 2000, you will have to pass many quests before defeating Boss Longma - a level 2000 boss. After defeating Longma, he will release Tushita to you.

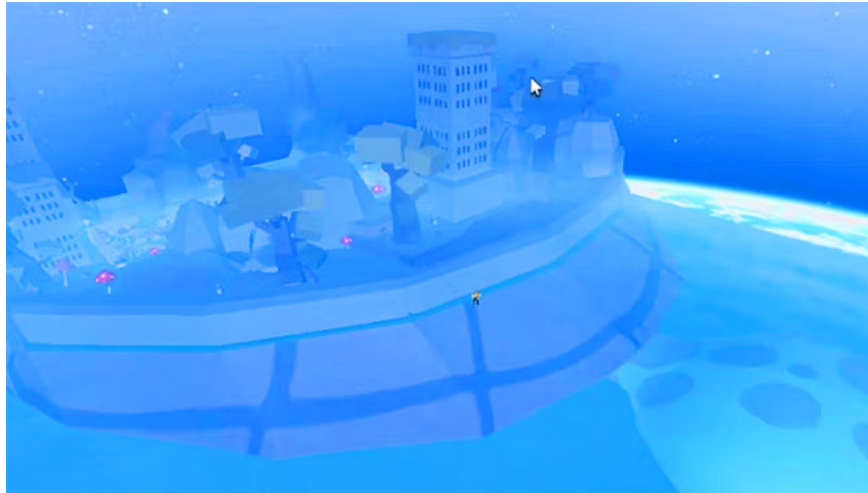

As for the Yama bar, achieving it will be easier. First you need to go to Castle on the Sea and talk to the Elite Hunter to receive this NPC's quest. Now, you will need to kill 30 Elite Pirates.

After killing 30 Elite Pirates, move to Hydra Island to the Secret Temple, which can be found behind the waterfall. If you've already taken Tushita, this location may look very familiar.

Here, you just need to break the gate leading to the Secret Temple and pull out the Yama. If you haven't killed 30 Elite Pirates, you will die while trying to draw your sword.

Tushita Scroll

With both Yama and Tushita, you will need to increase the proficiency of these two swords to at least 400. This can be done simply by using these two swords.

Once you've mastered it, go to the mansion on Turtle Island in the 3rd sea. Instead of going inside the mansion, go around the back and talk to the Crypt Master, after talking to the Crypt Master, continue Continue inside the mansion and find Scroll Yama along with Scroll Tushita.

Scroll Tushita is on the platform to the left of where you interacted. Once selected, you can start three related scroll tests.

Dock Legend

The first test requires you to talk to three NPC Boat Dealers (dock managers) on three different islands. This is a pretty simple quest, you just need to sail around and talk to three of these NPCs.

Sense Of Duty

Next, you will need to complete a Pirate raid. This is a group that even appears at Castle on the Sea. It is recommended that you complete this quest with other players.

Soulless

The final challenge requires you to defeat the Cake Queen. This is a level 2,175 boss that you can find in Ice Cream Land, in Sea of ??Treats.

This is also quite a difficult quest, but cooperating with other players can make the quest easier. While fighting, a song will start playing. If you don't kill the Cake Queen before the song ends, then you will be teleported to a new location, where you will have to light three torches and defeat all the enemies there.

Yama Scroll

After completing the Tushita scroll tests, you can complete the Yama scroll tests. There are three of these, which you can find below.

Pain And Suffering

During the first test, you will need to have enemies attack you until your health is drained and you die.

The Haze Of Misery

This test requires you to find an NPC with a purple mark and kill that NPC. Purple marks can appear on any area in the Third Sea, which means you'll need to go around the sea and look for them.

Many gamers pointed out that there is a high possibility that the ghosts in the Secret Temple have purple markings.

Fear The Reaper

Finally, you will need to get Hallow Essence. This can be done by going to Haunted Castle Island and summoning the Reaper Soul.

Instead of defeating this enemy, let them kill you. This will take you to Hell, where you must kill all the enemies there as well as light three torches. This is similar to Soulless when performing a Tushita scroll.

Cursed Skeleton Boss

With 6 2-scroll trials completed, you will now have six Alucard pieces. These pieces can be placed on a pedestal in front of the mansion. And then you will summon Cursed Skeleton Boss. Use the Tushita or Yama to kill this boss to receive the Cursed Dual Katana.

That's all there is to know about getting the Cursed Dual Katana. Overall, it can be a long process to get this sword. But find someone to go with you so you can get it easier.
