

How to get Free Fire MAX diamonds for free in 2025

Diamonds are an extremely important currency in Free Fire MAX, you need them to buy costumes, characters, gun skins and participate in special events. However, not everyone has the conditions to top up, so many players are always looking for ways to get free diamonds.

So how to get free Free Fire MAX diamonds safely and legally in 2025? Here are effective ways you should do immediately.

1. Enter Redeem Codes

Garena regularly releases gift codes for players. Some codes may include diamonds, so keep an eye on the official pages or communities so you don't miss out. When you have a Free Fire Code, simply visit the Rewards Redemption page to enter and claim your reward.

- Remember: FF code can usually be used for FF MAX version and vice versa.

2. Booyah Live App

Booyah Live is a game content platform developed by Garena itself. By participating in events, livestreams or missions, you have the chance to win diamonds or gift cards. Don't forget to link your Free Fire MAX account with Booyah to receive rewards directly in the game.

3. Google Opinion Rewards

Another sustainable and legal way is to use the Google Opinion Rewards app. You just need to answer surveys, accumulate balance on Google Play and use that balance to top up diamonds or buy promotional packages in Free Fire MAX. Although it is not fast, this is a sure and safe way.

Currently, many players are looking for hacking tools, mod apps, or "diamond generators" . these are all unsafe tools, easily leading to permanent account lock. In addition, because diamonds are stored on Garena's server, those tools are often just scams. So please consider carefully before receiving free Free Fire MAX diamonds from strange, unofficial sources.
