

How to gift skins to friends in Arena of Valor

Do you know how to gift your friends cool outfits in Arena of Valor? Let's find out now!

One of the standout features in Arena of Valor is the amazing skins for its heroes. Besides buying and owning these skins themselves, players can also gift them to friends using the instructions in this article.

The Gift Giving to Friends feature in Arena of Valor.

The Gift to Friends feature allows players to send in-game outfits to their friends. What could be more fun than owning similar outfits and playing the game together, right? However, to be able to gift your friends, players need to keep the following in mind:

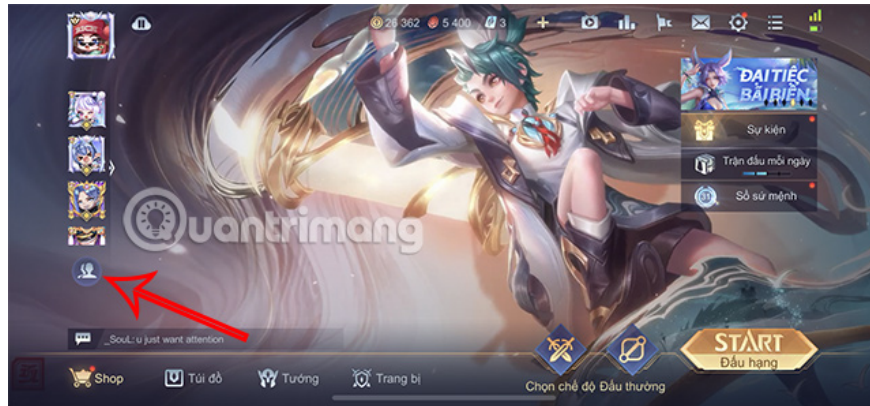

1. The two players must have been friends for 7 days or more.
2. Your character needs to reach at least level 10 to be able to send gifts.
3. The level of intimacy and close friendship between the two people needs to be 240 points or higher.
4. Each day, players can only send a maximum of 3 gifts to their friends.

How to give clothing as a gift to friends.

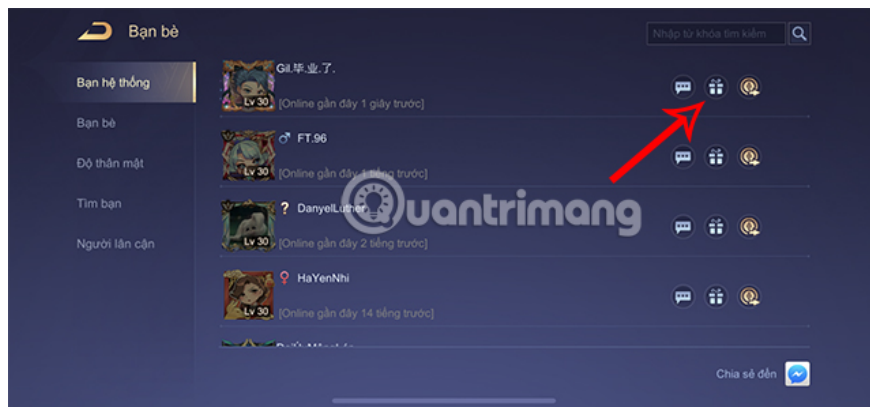

1. Arena of Valor: Details of the Season 41 Hundred Demons Night Parade Mission Log
2. Arena of Valor - Details of the 5v5 Festival Update
3. Get free Arena of Valor skins during the April 30th - May 1st event.

To gift a skin to another player, you need to follow these steps:

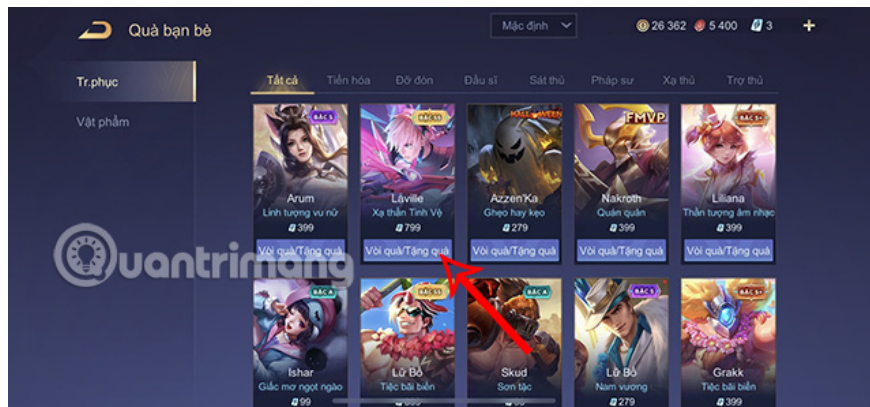

1. Access the Arena of Valor game.
2. On the main interface, click the Friends icon located in the toolbar on the left.

1. In your friends list, tap the Gift Box icon next to any player's name.

1. A window displaying various skins available in Arena of Valor will appear. Choose the skin you want to gift to your friends by clicking the "Gift Request/Gift" button below that skin.

1. The Gift Faucet/Gift Giver section appears, where you can select the person you want to give a gift to by entering their account name in the "Find your name" box or swiping to find the person you want to give a gift to.
2. After you've found the person you want to give the gift to, click the "Give Gift" button.

1. In the next section, you can write messages to your friends in the box on the left side of the interface. However, to write messages, you need Liên Quân Vip.
2. Finally, click the "Gift" button to confirm one last time and proceed with payment for the skin you're sending to your friend.

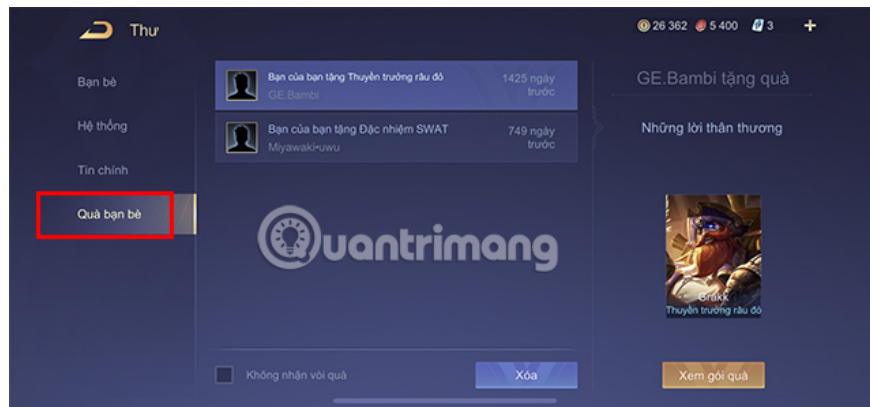

How to receive skins as gifts from friends.

1. After your friends send you a skin, simply access the Mail section on the main interface.

1. Next, click on the "Friend's Gift" section and open the message from your friend to receive the gift.

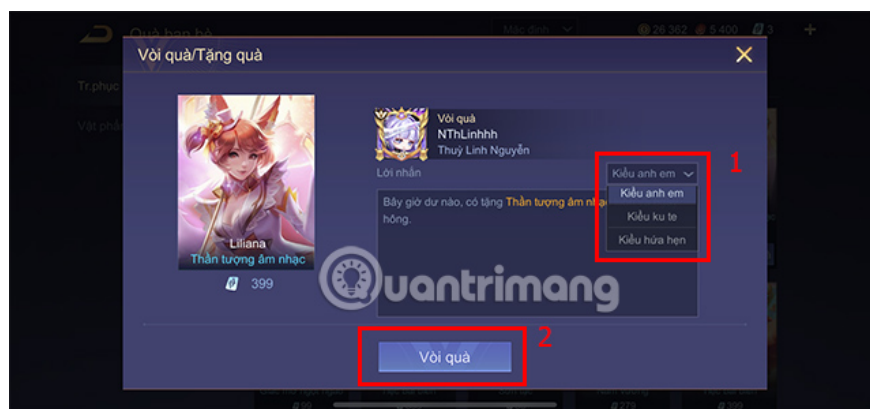

How to ask for gifts from friends

Besides sending gifts to friends, you can also request skins you like from them. The process of requesting a gift is similar to giving a gift. However, instead of selecting "Give Gift," you will click the "Request Gift from Other" button.

In the Gift Request section, you can choose different types of messages to ask for gifts, such as brotherly, promising, or cute messages.

Above is how to gift skins to friends in Arena of Valor that TipsMake.com wants to introduce to you. We hope you will have many hours playing the game with your friends wearing these beautiful skins.

You finished reading the article "How to gift skins to friends in Arena of Valor" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
