Tips to identify the enemy hiding in Rules of Survival

1. Download the Rules of Survival PC game

1. Listen to the noise around

1. How to fix Mic voice chat on Rules Of Survival

A favorite point in Rules of Survival is that sound is carefully invested, especially when you wear headphones. The sound in the game is lively, true so that players can feel each sound emitted. Therefore, you can take advantage of this point to detect strange sounds in the game.

If you go into a certain house and find a strange sound coming out, then surely someone has broken into this room. Pay attention to every movement and protect yourself. In addition, players can also attack opponents if necessary.

In case you need to hide in your home, lie down or sit down to limit the noise.

2. Number of items loot

When loot, many people will pick up all the things in the house, or some people just pick up ammunition and leave the weapon. If so, those people accidentally left a signal that they were in this building. If there are any items left in the building, especially weapons are left behind, it is possible that someone has been in the house. It is possible that the opponent will not carry any weapons, or they are in the hands of guns to destroy you.

3. The door is opened, the glass is broken

Some players want to not make a sound when opening the door, so choose to jump through the window but forget to close it. Or they break the glass door to get into the room. These are two harmful habits that accuse people in this building.

Check around the building and see the open window, be careful. Or if you want to enter with a window, when you need to close the door, close it immediately to hide your move.

Some small experiences in Rules of Survival, but it also helps you to preserve your life while hiding in the building. Please pay attention to the above tips to do so, avoid revealing your moves or use it to destroy opponents.
