

How to limit the time of sharing links on Google Drive

Data sharing operations on Google Drive are now very popular. And we can completely control every link sharing data, manually cancel the link after a time of sharing.

Today, the trend of using online storage tools like Google Drive is very popular. With the ability to automatically synchronize data between devices, these cloud storage services will help users' access work much more convenient. And we all know, when the data shared via these services will exist in memory unless you delete them.

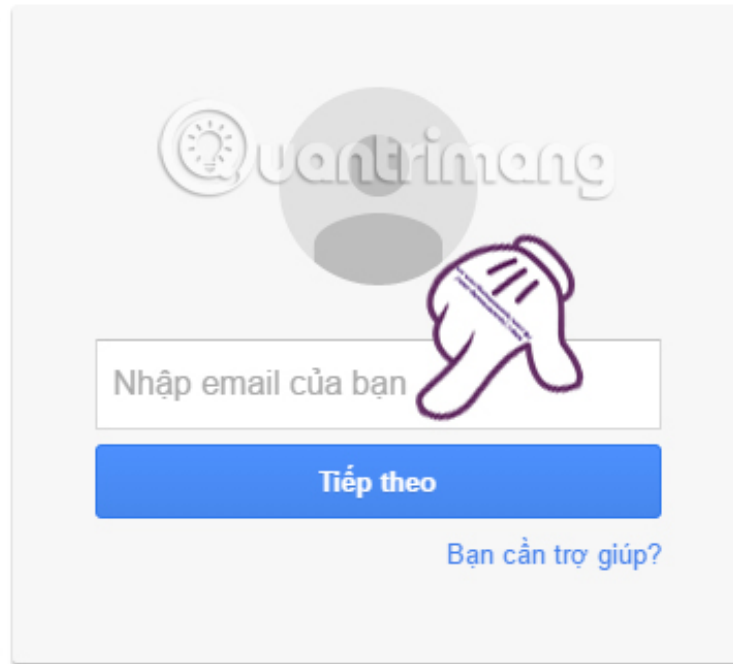

However, there is a useful trick to help you control all the sharing links on Google Drive. We will extend the lifetime of the shared data, schedule an appointment to cancel those link links and will no longer be used when the time limit expires.

Step 1:

First of all, please log in to your Google Drive personal account .

Step 2:

Next, we will click on this link and select Review Persissions .

Step 3:

A new dialog box appears. Google Drive Expirations wants to link to a personal Google account, click Allow to continue.

Step 4:

After enabling the link, we will be taken to a new interface. Next, follow the instructions to conduct time limits for links.

Select the data you want to share when you click the Open Drive item.
