

How to make laurel wreath with extremely unique toilet paper core

From the discarded toilet paper cores you can make unique laurels, impressive for Christmas decorations.

Make lovely laurel wreaths to bring Christmas air early to help you warm up in the cold winter.

Cinnamon loops are widely used in the world to decorate homes during Christmas. In addition, it is also an indispensable symbol in the ritual to welcome Christmas in religious families and churches.

From the discarded toilet paper cores you can make unique laurels, impressive for Christmas decorations.

Materials needed

1. Toilet paper core
2. Painting color
3. Glue
4. Red beads

Implementation steps

Green the toilet paper cores.

Cut paper core into small circles of equal width.

Use 5 circle glue to make a flower.

Then paste the flowers into 2 flower circles of the same size.

Use fixed glue 2 garlands overlapping and alternating.

Finally, add red beads to make the pistil so that the laurel wreath adds color and floats
So we have completed the unique laurel wreath to make Christmas decorations this year.

Wish you success and have a peaceful Christmas season with your family!

You finished reading the article "How to make laurel wreath with extremely unique toilet paper core" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.