Below, TipsMake.com would like to guide you how to make romantic chocolate flower pots for girlfriends on October 20.

Raw materials for making chocolate flower pots

1. Chocolate in small pellets
2. 1 small flower pot
3. A small piece of foam
4. Brochettes
5. Gift wrapping paper or decorative cellophane
6. Decorative ribbon
7. Scissors, sticky tape or milk glue

Note:

You should buy small chocolate ice cubes with an outer cover to prevent chocolate from flowing. You can choose chocolate cubes that are round, pointy or heart-shaped as you like.

How to make chocolate flower pots

Step 1:

Cut gift wrap or cellophane paper into small square pieces of paper with a side of about 20cm.

Then, use skewers on the middle of the piece of paper.

Tuck up the piece of paper, align the corrugated paper to make it beautiful, and then use the adhesive tape, or you can use the glue to not reveal the sticky tape.

Next, insert the chocolate tablet into the skewer to create flowers.

Step 2:

You cut a piece of foam to fit the size of the flower pot, put it in a pot so that it fits into the mouth of the flower pot.

Step 3:

You plug the chocolate flowers into the pot.

Use scissors to cut different lengths of skewers to make the vases look more vivid.

Step 4:

You use cellophane or gift wrapping paper, pack pots, use a ribbon to tie around to decorate.

If you don't have pots, you can put flowers in a plastic box or paper box as you like. Looks like your chocolate flower pot is equally beautiful.

In addition, you can bundle these chocolate flowers into a beautiful bouquet.

So you have a romantic, sweet chocolate flower pot to give to your girlfriend in the upcoming Vietnamese Women's Day October 20 .

Good luck!
