Finding a Supernatural Convention

Visit the Rostercon website for convention locations and dates. If you want to meet Jensen Ackles, your best bet is to go to a Supernatural convention. To find a Supernatural Convention, visit the Rostercon website at <https://www.rostercon.com/en/people/jensen-ackles-en>. The conventions tour across the United States throughout the year.<sup>[1]</sup>

1. Additionally, Jensen attends CW events and parties on occasion, and you may be able to run into him at one of their events.

Select a conference closest to your location. Supernatural conferences occur in most major U.S. cities. When you get to the Rostercon, look at the events under the 'Upcoming Events' tab, or click on the 'All events' button. Then, pick a convention closest to your home.<sup>[2]</sup>

1. If you are traveling from out of town, there is hotel information listed on the particular convention's page.
2. If there are no upcoming conferences coming near you, sign up for the email list by visiting <http://www.creationent.com/email.htm>. That way, you'll receive an email when a new conference is announced.

Read over the convention details to learn about meet and greet options. Once you click on a particular conference, you can browse the convention overview to decide on what meet and greet package you'd like. Click the link reading 'Convention Program' to see the specific schedule of events.<sup>[3]</sup>

1. Each convention has a different schedule. Generally, Jensen Ackles is available to meet for 1 of the 2 days. There are many other actors you can meet, as well as programmed events throughout the weekend.
2. If you only want to meet Jensen Ackles, visit the conference only on the day he is attending.

Purchase a basic admission ticket to get access to the convention. In order to meet Jensen, you must buy a ticket to the conference, as well as a meet and greet package. The admission ticket grants you access to the convention, and it is required in order to purchase the meet and greet packages.

1. The Saturday pass is usually $100 (£75.8), and the Sunday pass is typically $135 (£102.4).

Purchase a photo op package to get your picture taken with Jensen. In addition to the admission ticket, you can purchase a photo op package to get your picture taken with Jensen Ackles. With this package, you'll receive an 8 in × 10 in (20 cm × 25 cm) full color photograph. Note that the total time you'll spend with Jensen is very short, as he will take pictures with many attendees.<sup>[4]</sup>

1. The photo op package is typically $169 (£128.1) for Jensen.
2. This is not included with the ticketing or meet and greet packages. The photo op is an additional charge.
3. If you'd like, you can order additional pictures when you get your picture taken.
4. 4 guests can be in the same photo with Jensen.

Choose the 'Silver' package if you want Jensen's autograph. The 'Silver' package offers you the opportunity to get an autograph from Jensen in person, as well as many of the other actors. You'll also receive access to the rock concert, karaoke night, and vendor area.<sup>[5]</sup>

1. The 'Silver' package costs $589 (£446.6), and it sells out extremely quickly.

Select the 'Gold' package to attend an intimate panel discussion. In addition to autographs, the 'Gold' package offers guests priority lines, admission to the Saturday night concert, collectable credentials, karaoke night, and vendor access. The main perk of this package is the intimate panel with Jensen Ackles and Jared Padalecki, in addition to their regular convention appearances. Here they offer particular information about the set, and you get the chance to ask them questions.<sup>[6]</sup>

1. Choose between packages to meet Jensen Ackles along with actor Jared Padalecki and/or Misha Collins.
2. The regular 'Gold' package costs $978 (£741.5). If you want to sit in the first row for the convention activities, purchase the 'Gold First Row Seating' for $1,650 (£1,251).
