Instructions for playing 8x8 maps game Rules Of Survival

1. Download the Rules of Survival PC game

1. Use the game control button

With 300 players in this new 8x8 map, your pressure will increase greatly. Therefore, it is necessary to calm down to handle the situation and react faster. First of all, it is necessary to adjust the buttons accordingly, in accordance with the usage of each player. One advice is to turn on the tilt mode to make it easier to move and attack the enemy

First click on Settings in the top right corner of the main interface of the Rules Of Survival game. Click on Advanced then select Advanced Mode to create flexibility when aiming.

Also in this section Vehicle Control , click on Sports Mode in the settings interface to control the vehicle more easily.

In addition to turning on the tilt feature, click the Operation tab, then turn on the Lean section to turn on the tilt mode while playing.

2. Select the outfit when playing

Whether it is in the previous map or the new 8x8 map, when choosing the skin, the costume, the player should choose the sets that have the same or same color as the surroundings . Thus, players can easily crawl, avoid detection by other players. Don't choose too many colored outfits if you don't want to be discovered and destroyed with just one bullet.

3. Calculate the direction of skydiving

This map will have 2 planes flying in 2 different directions. Each aircraft carries 150 players. Where the center, the intersection area should be avoided. The areas on the edge of the map are where you should choose to avoid other competitors as soon as you land.

In addition to skydiving skills, grounding should also be used. When choosing a landing site, avoid the horizontal lines passing through. If the plane flies through the center, try to fly as far as possible in the areas near the map. This place will have fewer skydivers.

4. Select the location of the loot map

The goal of landing is that you need to get your weapons. Some landing points will be 'golden' locations for any player. Players can choose Area 42 or Hero Ridge, where there are many aircraft and weapons. However, remember one thing where there are many weapons and genuine items, that place will certainly have many dangers lurking.

The experience is to search for a car or canoe to reach safe places. Once you've created a safe distance for yourself, then find other places to loot.

5. Use the right tactics

Strategy is always needed for any game, even in Rules Of Survival. Do not rush into any skirmish, as that may cause you to lose your life immediately.

It's best to hide somewhere to wait for the opportunity to attack the opponent. When only the only option is to attack to keep life, then fight. Do not fight while outside the ring because other players in your team will know your position and attack back. That situation will be very dangerous for gamers, consuming a lot of energy.

6. Be patient, hide and wait for the opportunity

With Fearless Fiord maps, finding a hiding place is essential. During the move, lie or sit to move, avoid being detected more.

Gamers can play close to the ring and only move when new rounds appear. Stand at the edge of the ring to move out of the ring, just move into the middle of the ring when you can find a safe hiding place.

When the war is still about 30 people, open the map to view the bo to calculate which direction you will go first, then search for yourself a good and safe place before the other players rob you. your place.

With 8x8 maps, the difficulty you encounter will greatly increase. First calculate in the parachute and find a safe landing, so you can continue the fight in Rules Of Survival.
