

How to register a Shopee account on a computer

Shopee is an online shopping site that supports many different platforms, from computers to phones. To shop on Shopee you need to create a Shopee account.

Shopee recently became a favorite online shopping site for many people, where we can buy any supplies for our needs or we can post products ourselves for sale online.

Shopee has now been developed in many countries, including Vietnam. Coming to Shopee, you can search for any items according to your needs, based on the list of products that Shopee has arranged. Especially for those who want to post products, the process of posting products is very simple. You just need to take a picture and then post it to Shopee. And before buying and selling products on Shopee, users need to create a personal Shopee account. Then use the created account to make purchases on Shopee.
