Instructions to remove items from champions in the Arena of Truth

Step 1: First, you need to determine which champion wants to remove equipment and let that champion hold 3 equipment, if only 2 equipment is not removed.

For example, you have Vayne wielding Raging Scythe, Raging Bow and Killing Giant. Now you want to give her "no hands to catch the enemy" and throw those items to other generals, you must try 3 stars for her.

Specifically, you only lack one star Vayne to be 3 stars for her. Now you have 2 Vayne 2 stars and 2 vayne 1 stars.

Step 2: To remove items from the champion, place the 2-star Vayne unmatched in an elemental box on the floor instead of Vayne full 3 equipment. Then buy General Vayne 1 last star to raise 3 stars for her, immediately 3 equipment available on Vayne will automatically splash out.

One way of removing items from a champion in the DTCL is to take the Gangster Bandit from the champion. This equipment is often found in squads that don't have a lot of items.

For example, if you have a champion that has a Gauntlet on the floor but doesn't want to pair that champion with a Gauntlet. Now you will also have to rely on the elemental cells available on the floor, place the champion with Practice Gloves on any elemental box, then transplant that champion into Gang Thief, automatically this item will fall. out of that champion.

Here are some tips to help you get things out of champions in the Arena of Truth without having to sell them. It's actually very useful to remove items from this champion, especially if you have few items for your team.
