

How to remove the 40 minute limit on Zoom for unlimited use

Zoom has a policy to support teachers by removing the 40-minute limit when they log in Zoom by email with the domain @ edu.vn. This article will guide teachers to remove the 40 minute limit on Zoom so that they can teach unlimited on Zoom.

Teachers can use Zoom software to teach students online, but there is a small problem that the free version of Zoom will be limited to 40 minutes / visit. This leads to disruption of the student's learning process, the loss of time for both teachers and students each time I / I re-enter the application, affecting the effectiveness of teaching and learning.

Facing the increasing demand, Zoom has had a policy of supporting teachers by removing the 40-minute limit when they log in Zoom by email with the domain @ edu.vn. This article will guide teachers to remove the 40 minute limit on Zoom so that they can teach unlimited on Zoom.

How to use Zoom has no time limit

Step 1:

Teachers go to zoom.us/signup, enter the email provided by the school or the school district in the registration email box: Your work email address:

Enter school information to verify educational account with Zoom

Step 3:

Teachers will have to wait 72 hours (about 3 days) to get rid of the 40-minute limit if Zoom verifies that their school is eligible as the official school of the education system.

Upon successful confirmation, teachers logged into the Zoom app will receive a notice that the 40-minute limit has been removed on their account.

In addition to the above method, if there is no education email, teachers can buy Zoom's Pro package for $ 15 / month to increase the limit of each access to 24 hours.
