

How to Save Reddit Comments on PC or Mac

This wikiHow teaches you how to save any comment in a Reddit thread to your list of saved posts. Go to <https://www.reddit.com> in a web browser. You can use any browser, such as Safari or Chrome, to access Reddit.

Method 1 of 2:

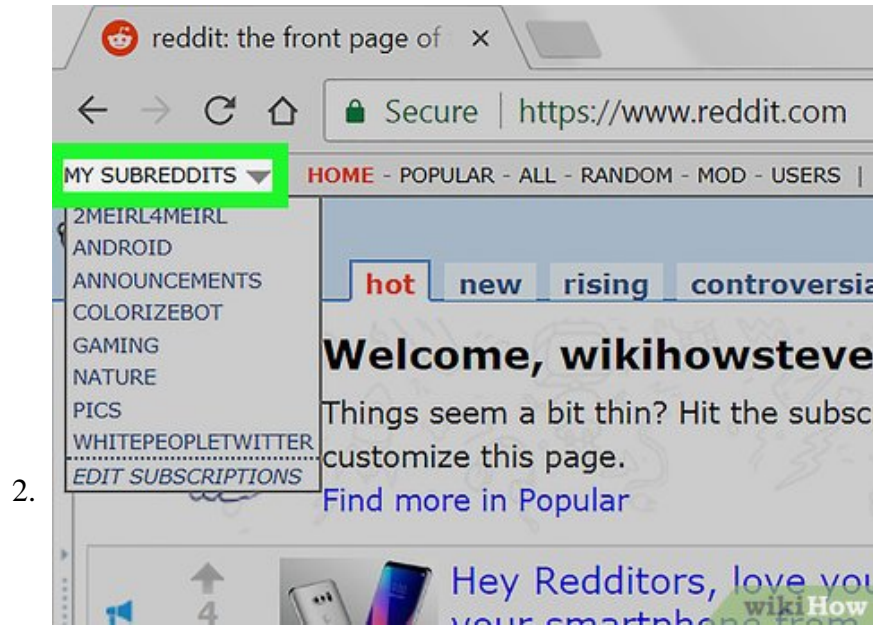

Saving a Comment

1.

Go to <https://www.reddit.com> in a web browser. You can use any browser, such as Safari or Chrome, to access Reddit.

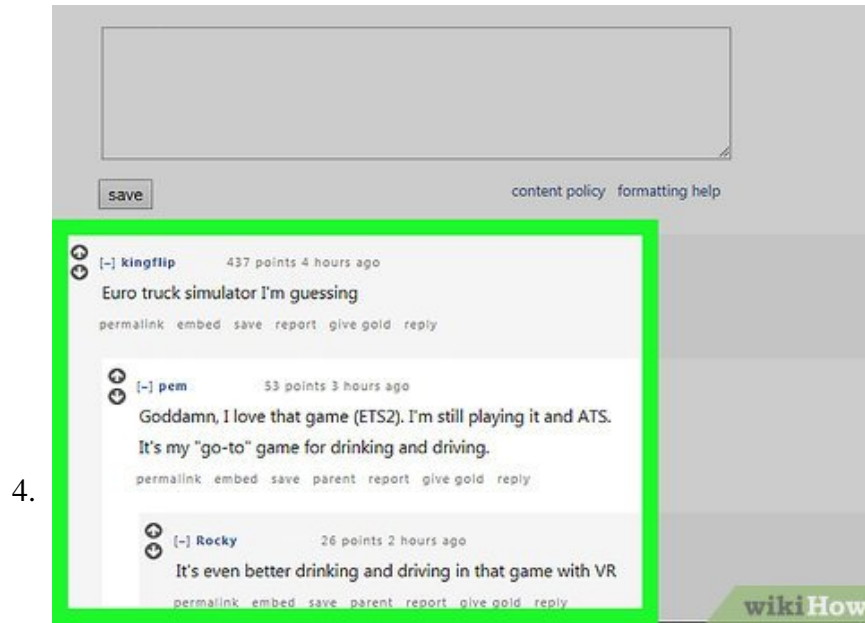

1. If you're not already logged in to your account, log in now.

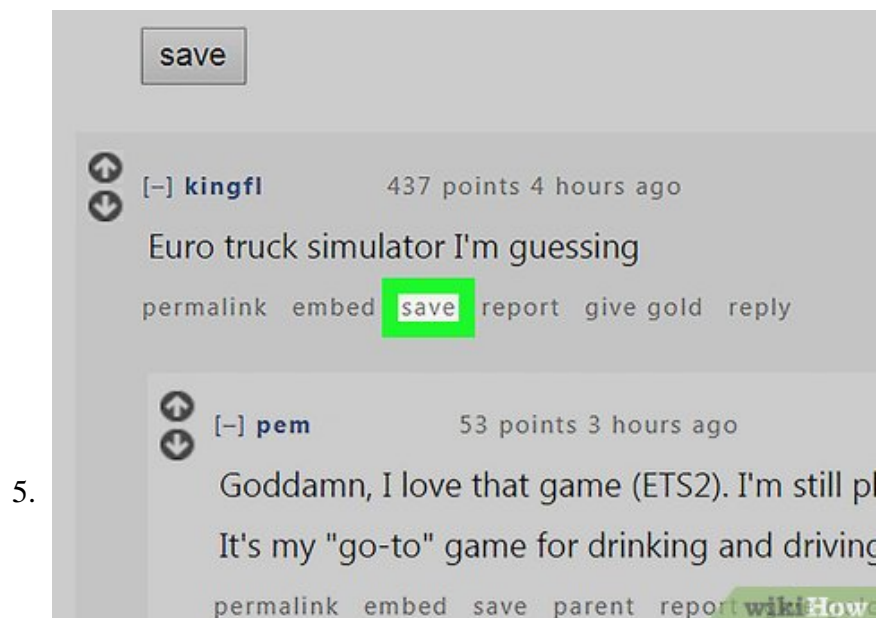

Go to the subreddit that contains the thread. If you subscribe to the subreddit, click MY SUBREDDITS at the top-left corner of the page, then click the subreddit. Otherwise, type its name into the Search bar and press Enter or Return to search for it.

Click the post with the comment you want to save. If the post's title is a link to a non-Reddit photo or URL, click the number of comments below the title instead.

Scroll down to the comment you want to save.

Click save beneath the comment. It's one of the links beneath the comment, between 'embed' and 'parent.' The comment is now saved to your list.

Method 2 of 2:

Viewing Saved Comments

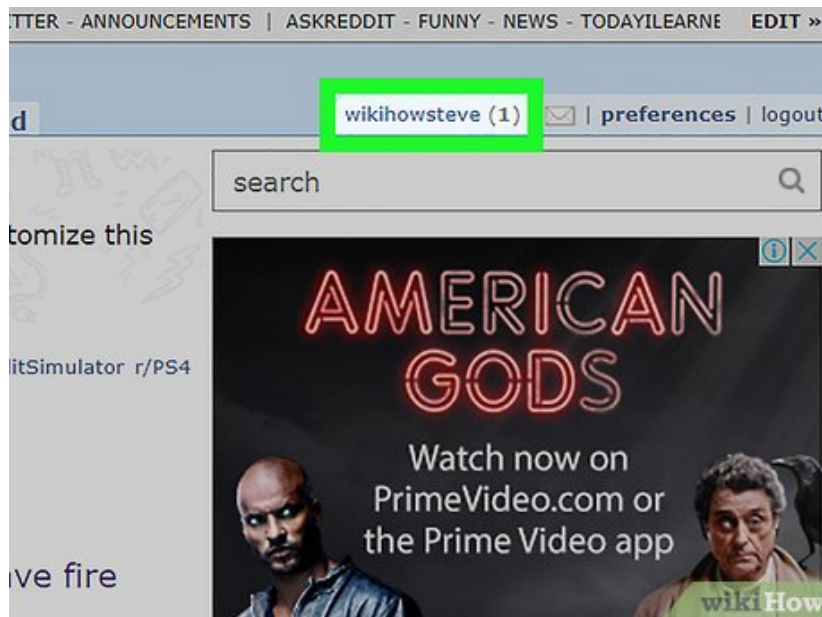

1.

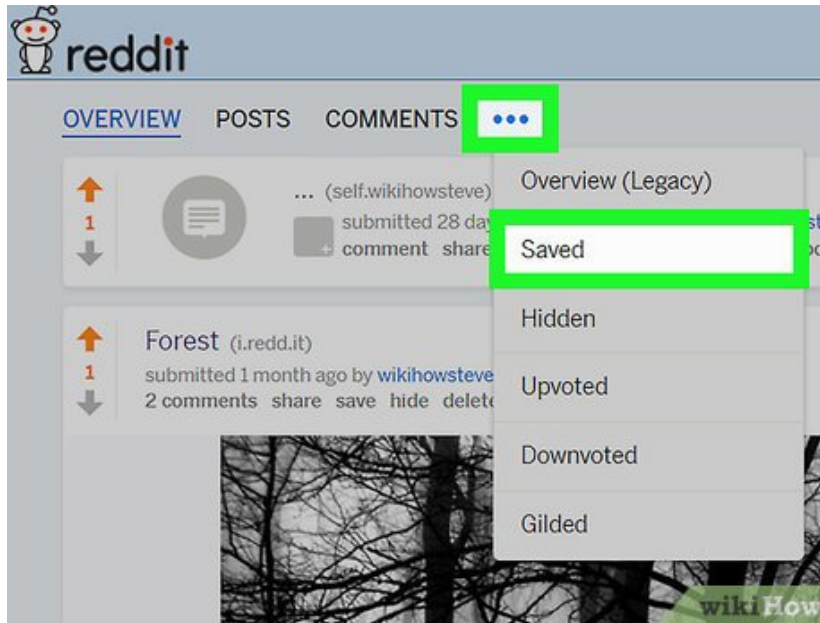

Go to <https://www.reddit.com> in a browser .You can use any browser, such as Safari or Chrome, to access Reddit.

1. If you're not already logged in to your Reddit account, log in now.

Click your username. It's near the top-right corner of the page.

3. Click Saved. This is usually a tab at the top of the screen. If you have the new version of the profile, click ? and then click Saved. Saved comments appear in this list.

1. To view the parent thread, click the title above the saved comment.
2. To unsave the comment, click unsave beneath it.
