How to 'track' what your lover is doing on Facebook

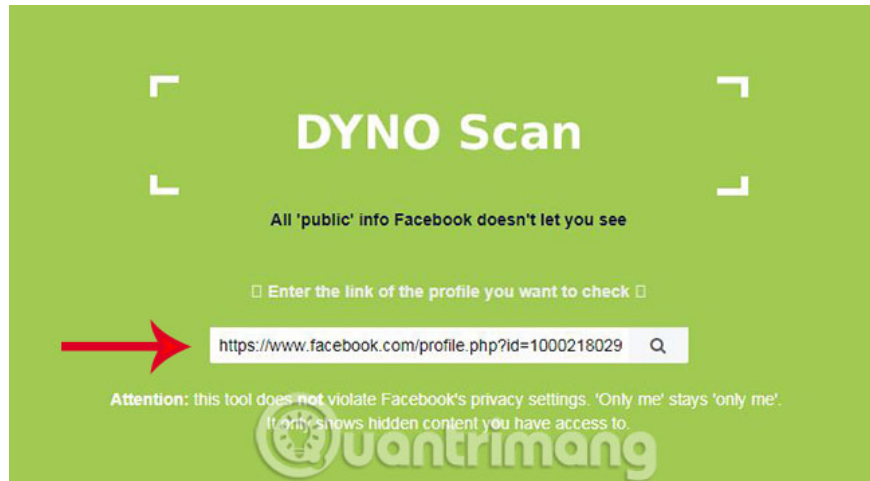

Step 1:

Open Facebook and visit the personal page of the person you want to track activities to copy their personal Facebook link.

Step 2:

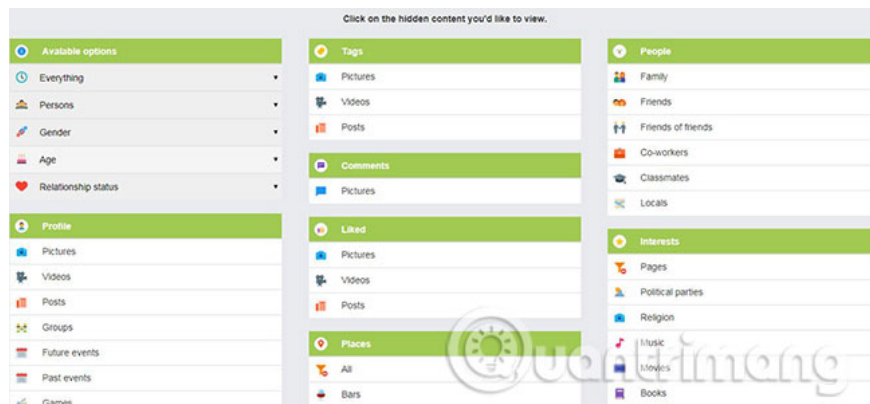

Next, go to the Facebook Scanner homepage (<http://scan.dyno.vn/>). When the interface appears like the image below, you proceed to paste the link of the personal Facebook page you just copied in step 1 into the frame and click the search button.

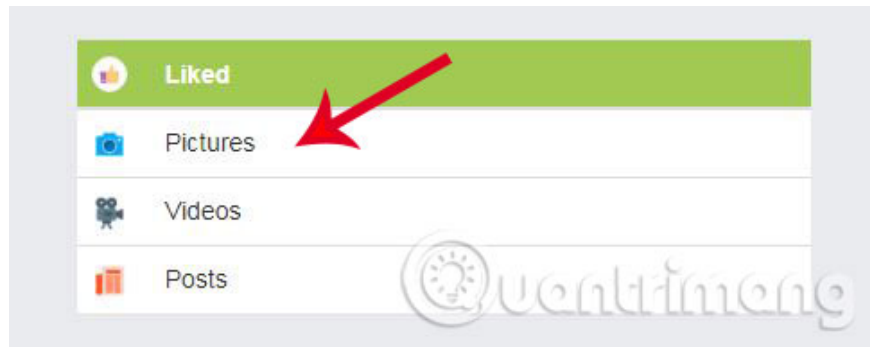

Note: You only provide a Facebook page link, not related to passwords or security, so you don't need to worry about account theft or other issues.

Immediately, all information about the activity of that Facebook account will appear in each section below, there are many items that you can see as:

1. Information about Profile.
2. Information about Likes.
3. Information about comments.

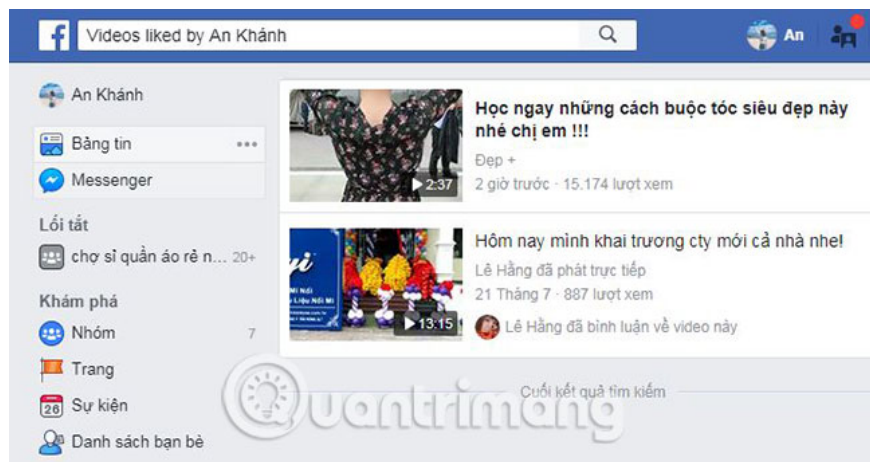

When you click on these items, you will be directed to the Facebook page that lists the search results related to the item you selected. For example, if you want to know which photos people like (like), click on the Pictures tab on the Liked tab .

And as you can see, the tool will display information about the photos that person likes on Facebook.

Similarly, click on the Videos or Posts section to see which moods the person has liked, which video, whose, .

Facebook Scanner not only allows you to see who likes your photos, videos, and posts, but also knows which comments they have left, interacting with which images. At the Comments tab, click Pictures.

All images commented by that person will be displayed as shown below. You can click on each image to see what the person comments.

The above is a simple way to help you keep track of someone you want to care about. In addition to the items just introduced above, there are still many other items for you to capture information about that person yourself, find out and discover more yourself!
