

How to take Valentine photos on Facebook Messenger

To celebrate Valentine's Day, the Messenger app has added a spectacular Valentine photography effect. Users just need to choose any Valentine sticker and then apply it to Messenger images and videos.

In the atmosphere of Happy Valentine's Day, the Facebook Messenger app has added a photo-taking effect to the Valentine season, with crimson pink wings and colorful hearts. With Valentine's Day breathtaking sticker set, users can optionally choose Valentine effects to apply to Messenger images or videos, then send a message to "that person" with the message "yes wing".

However, to use the Valentine effect photography feature on Facebook Messenger, users need to upgrade the Messenger application version on the device to the latest version.

How to insert Valentine sticker on Facebook Messenger

1. Download the Android Facebook Messenger application
2. Download the iOS Messenger app

Step 1:

First, we access the Messenger application on the device. Right at the main interface you will see the heart icon in the center button at the bottom of the screen, which means your app has been updated to the Valentine effect. We press the red circle button to get to the shooting interface.

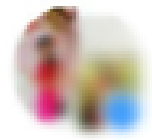

Soon the Valentine effects will appear on the screen interface. We just need to choose 1 effect to apply. To select more effects, click on the smiley icon.
