

How to transfer money via Apple Pay Cash iMessage on iPhone

In iOS 11.2, Apple Pay Cash service was launched on iMessage, transferring money right on the messaging application.

iPhone users after upgrading to iOS 11.2 were able to send money via text messages on iMessage, when integrating bank card accounts thanks to Apple Pay Cash money transfer service.

Starting with iOS 11, iMessage has changed a lot when integrating some services while messaging. At the time of the launch of this new operating system, iMessage also allows money transfer but using external service is Venmo only. And to this new iOS 11.2 update, Apple has officially launched Apple Pay Cash service, competing with other money transfer services.

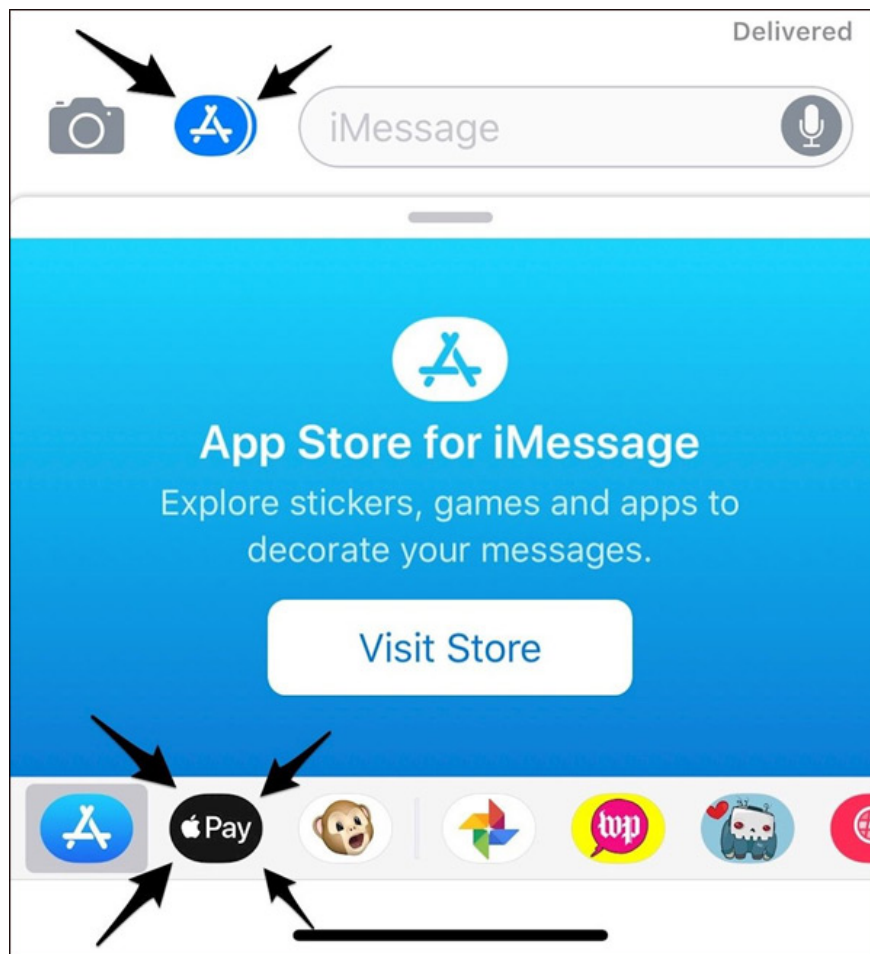

However, Apple Pay Cash service does not work on Android devices, can be paid by iPad or Apple Watch. The following article will guide you how to use Apple Pay Cash on iMessage iPhone.
