

How to turn on Dark Mode on Microsoft Teams

Microsoft Teams includes the Dark Mode option, if you want to use applications with this palette and here's how to turn on the dark background on Microsoft Teams.

Dark Mode is an additional mode used to display most dark surfaces on the user interface. This design reduces the light emitted from the device screen, while maintaining the minimum color contrast ratio required for reading.

Microsoft Teams includes the Dark Mode option, if you want to use applications with this palette. Here's how to turn on dark mode on Microsoft Teams.

Why activate Dark Mode on Microsoft Teams?

Although, on Windows 10, many applications have the ability to match the color palette of the system, but when Dark Mode is enabled, the Microsoft Teams tool does not automatically switch palettes.

To solve this problem, you need to manually enable Dark Mode on Microsoft Teams using the application's settings.

In this tutorial, TipsMake will guide you through the steps to switch from light to dark themes on Microsoft Teams in Windows 10.

How to turn on Dark Mode on Microsoft Teams

To turn on dark background on Microsoft Teams, follow these steps:

1. Open Microsoft Teams.
2. Click your account icon to open the main menu.
3. Select the Settings option .

Select the Settings option

Select the Settings option

4. Click General.

5. In the Theme section, select the Dark option .

In the Theme section, select the Dark option

When you complete the steps, Microsoft Teams will turn dark. On the same page, you can also choose the High contrast option, if you need to use that color scheme.

This tutorial was written on Windows 10, but you can do the same to switch to a light or dark theme on Microsoft Teams in other platforms, including macOS and Linux.

You finished reading the article "How to turn on Dark Mode on Microsoft Teams" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.