2. Block websites with bad content on iPhone Safari

You must first enable the limited feature for the device. Implementation: open the Settings / Settings app > General settings / General > Restrictions / Restrictions > Enable limit > Enter password and confirm.

Next, scroll down to the ALLOWED CONTENT section / Content enabled and click Music, Podcasts, News & iTunes U.

Finally, turn off the switch next to Explicit .

From now on, music videos, podcasts, news containing vulgar content, adult and inappropriate content will be blocked on the iPhone. You can rest assured that your child can hold the phone without fear of watching the content that might affect them.

With the Restrictions feature, you can also prevent others from accessing unauthorized devices, hide applications, and even prevent other users from deleting your apps.
