

How to turn Windows Security notifications on and off on Windows

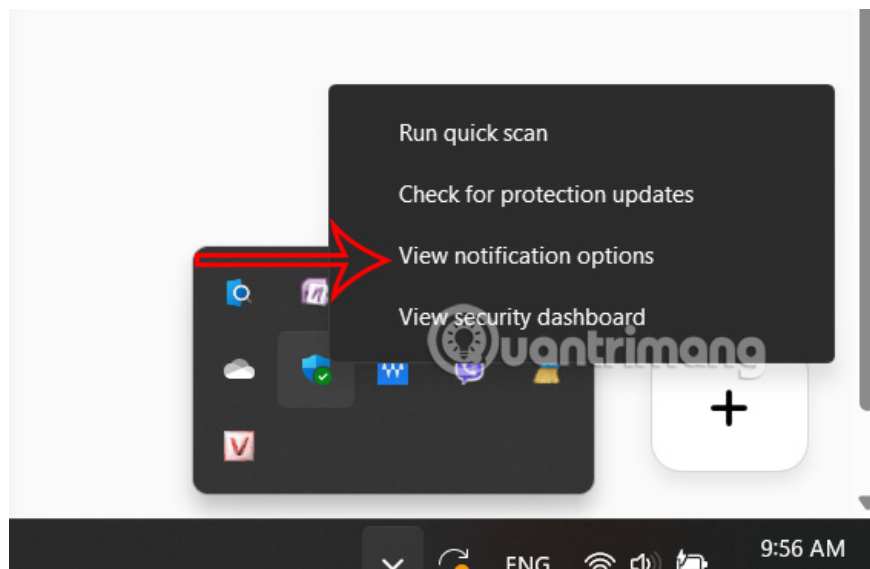

In case you do not need to receive notifications from Windows Security, you can completely turn it off and turn it back on whenever you need.

Windows Security will send you notifications so that we can quickly know the system security information of the software. In case you do not need to receive notifications from Windows Security, you can completely turn it off and turn it back on whenever you need. Below are instructions on how to turn on and off Windows Security notifications on Windows

Turn Windows Security notifications on or off via the system tray

Step 1:

Right -click on the Windows Security icon in the system tray and select View notification options in the displayed list.

Step 2:

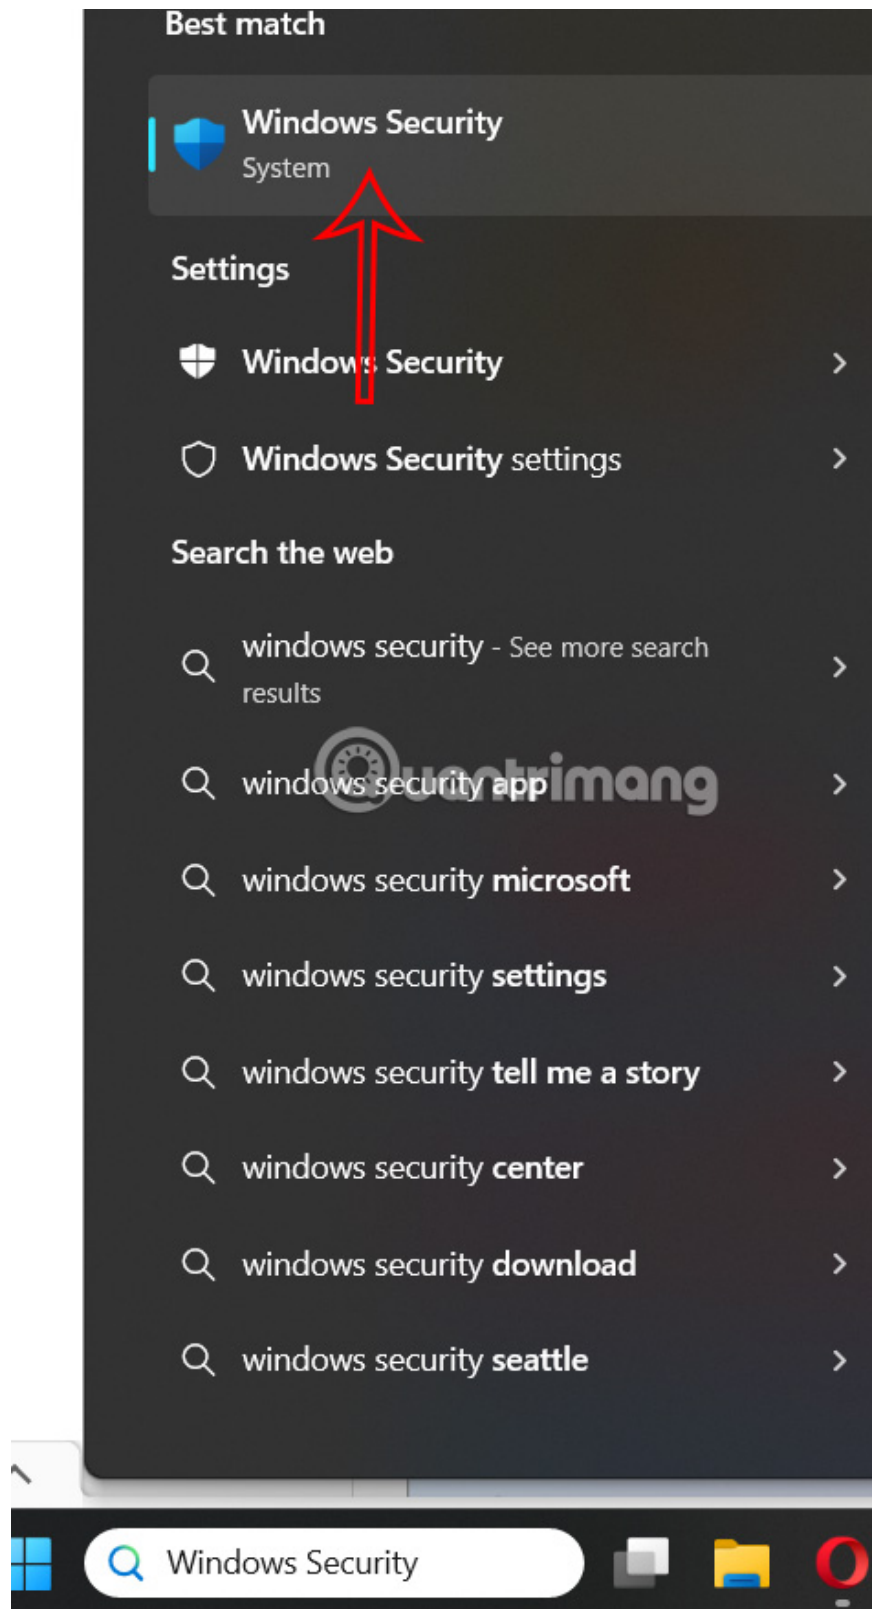

Displays the Windows Security settings interface. Here, we see 3 large items to adjust Windows Security notifications for you to adjust in each of those items.

1. Virus & threat protection notifications: Virus & threat protection notifications
2. Account protection notifications: Account protection notifications
3. Firewall & network protection notifications: Firewall & network protection notifications

To turn off notifications from Windows Security, simply switch to Off in the section where you want to turn off notifications.

To enable notifications from Windows Security, slide the control button to the right.

How to turn Windows Security notifications on or off from settings

Step 1:

We enter Windows Security in the search bar and then click to access the manager.

Step 2:

In the Windows Security management interface, click Settings at the bottom left of the interface.

Firewall & network protection

App & browser control

Device security

Device performance & health

Family options

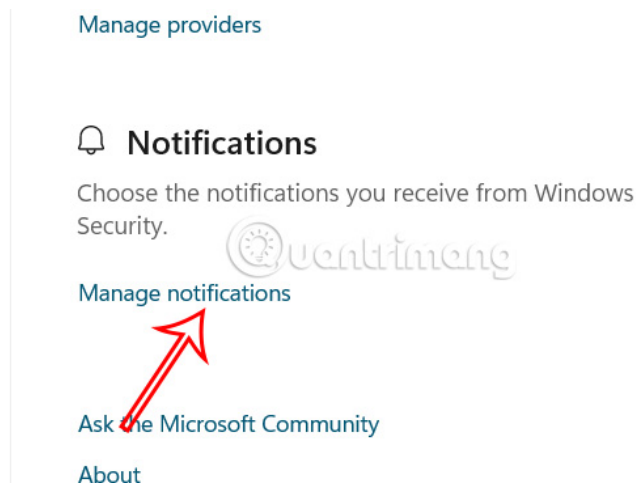

Protection history

Quantimeng

Settings

Step 3:

In the Notifications section, click Manage notifications to manage notifications for Windows Security.

Now you can also adjust Windows Security notifications as you like.

Virus & threat protection notifications

Get informational notifications

On

Recent activity and scan results

Threats found, but no immediate action is needed

Files or activities are blocked

Virus & threat protection settings

Account protection notifications

Get account protection notifications

On

Problems with Dynamic lock

Firewall & network protection notifications

Notify me when Microsoft Defender Firewall blocks a new app

On

You finished reading the article "How to turn Windows Security notifications on and off on Windows" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
