

How to use eSound Music to play music on your computer

The eSound Music application plays music on your computer completely free, without ads so you can listen to music without being disturbed.

The eSound Music application plays music on your computer completely free, without ads so you can listen to music without being disturbed. Basically, the eSound Music application also has the same music playback options as the music playback applications on the computer. Besides, the application also has the ability to play music on many other cloud services such as Dropbox, OneDrive, Google Drive, . The following article will guide you to use eSound Music on your computer.

Instructions for using eSound Music on computers

Step 1:

First you download the eSound Music application for your computer according to the link below.

Step 2:

First, the user clicks Log in to log in to the eSound Music account.

One account, all your music.

Sign In with Apple

Sign In with Facebook

Sign In with Google

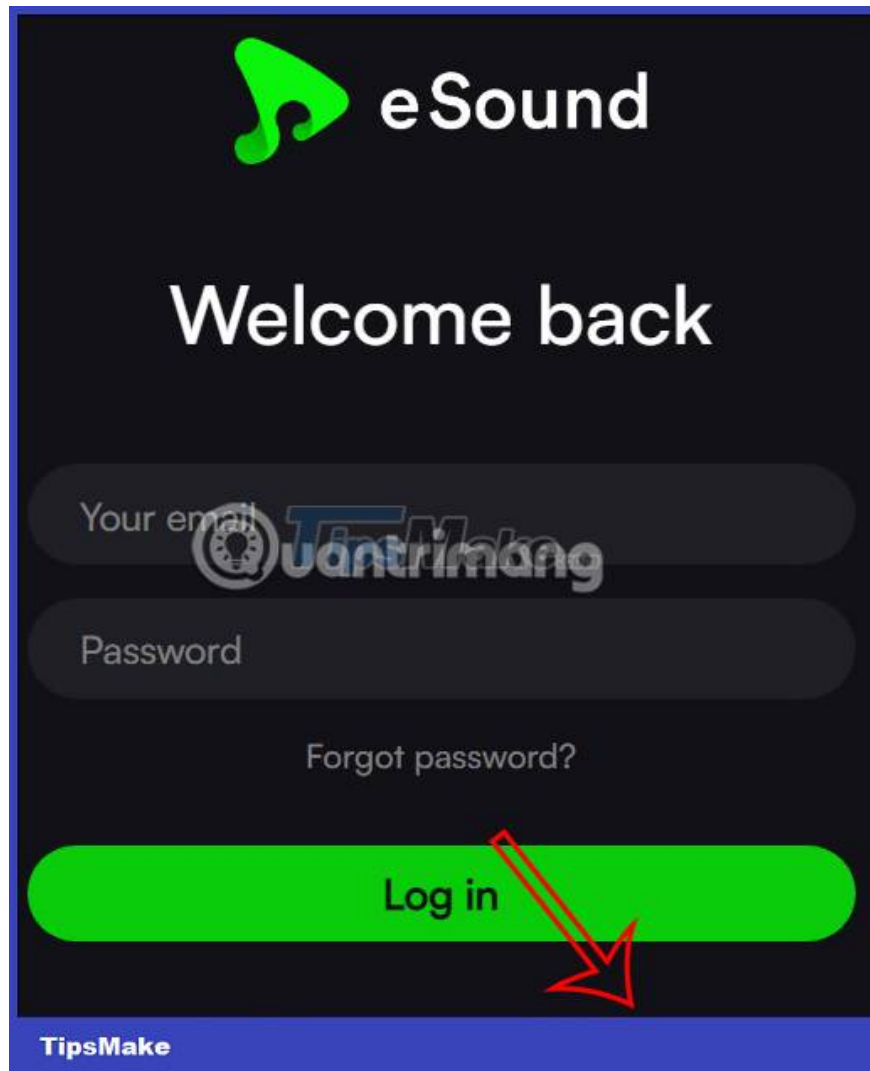

Sign Up with eSound

Already have an account?

Log in

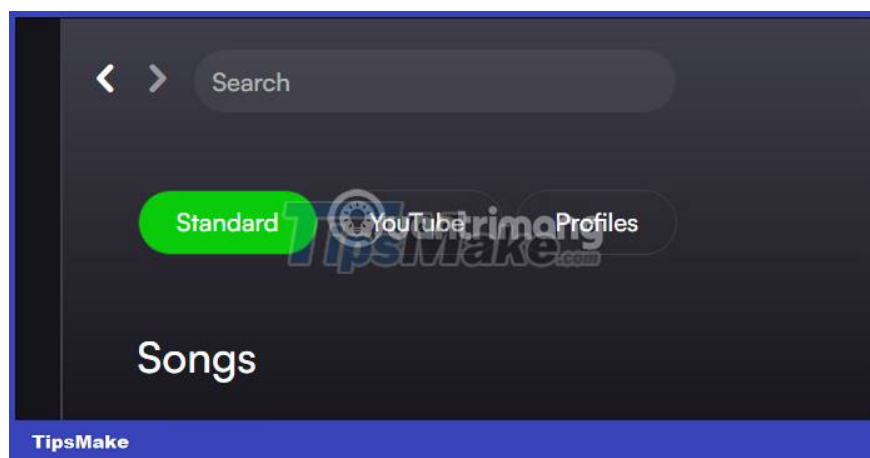

TipsMake

Continue to click Register to register for an eSound Music account. Then you enter your email address to register for an eSound Music account.

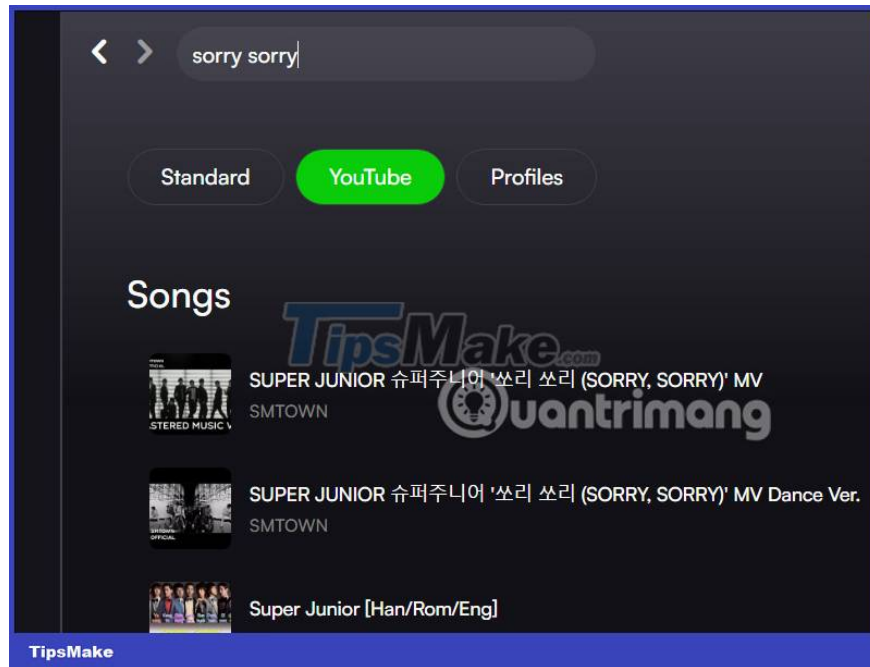

Step 3:

In the eSound Music application interface, click on the search box and then enter the name of the song we want to listen to.

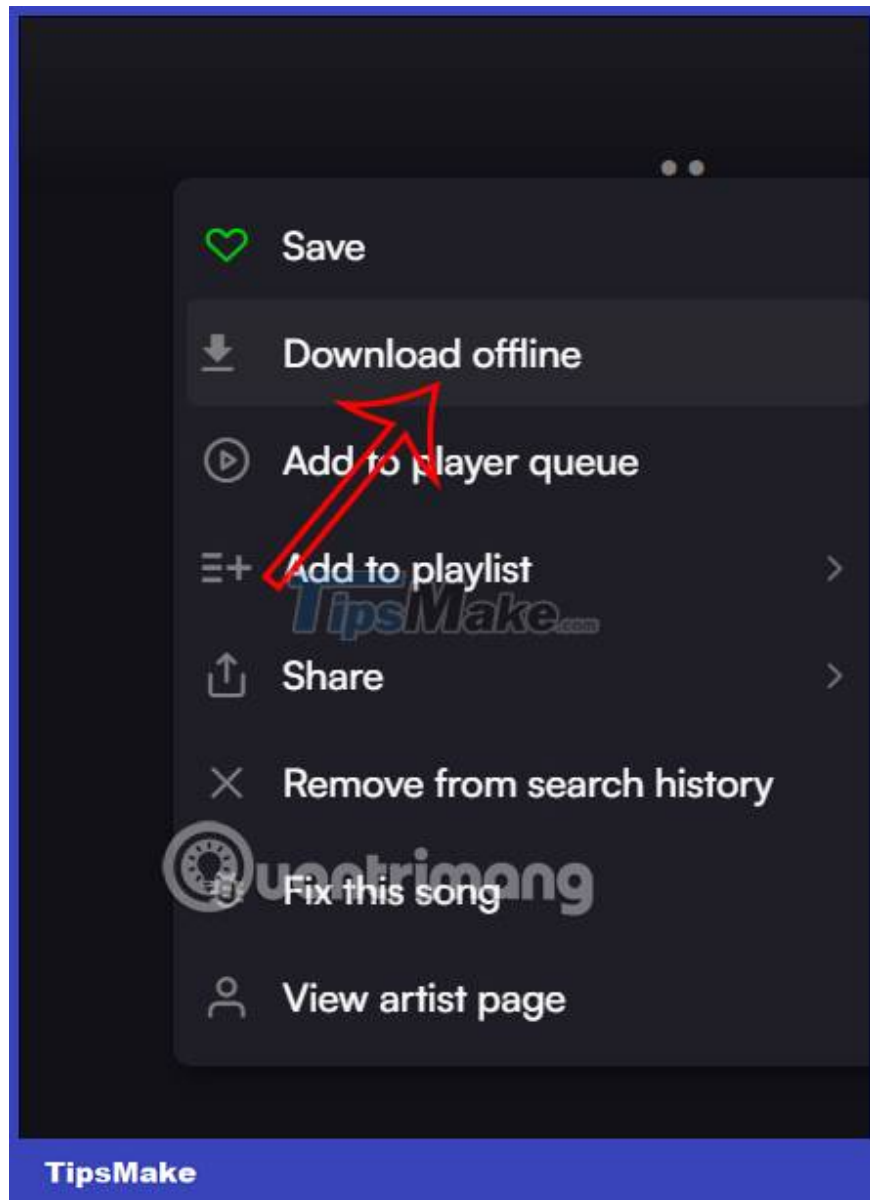

You will then see the results displayed below according to the keyword you enter. We can search for music on YouTube to listen to on the eSound Music application.

Step 4:

When clicking on the 3 dots icon in each song will display options as shown below. We can download music on eSound Music to listen to music offline.

Music only saves to the application, does not download to the computer, so it does not take up the computer's resources.

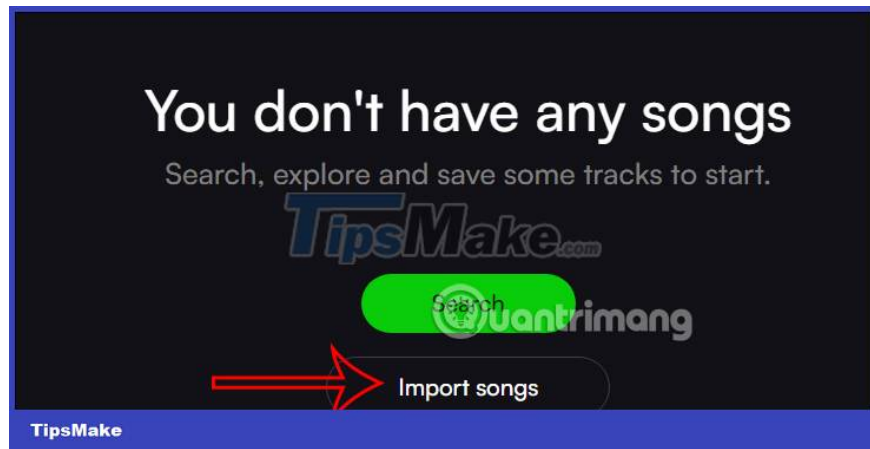

Step 5:

To get music from a cloud storage service, click the Browse button next to the menu on the left side of the interface.

Continue to click Import songs to import songs into the application.

Step 6:

At this point we will see there are many music source options to import into the eSound Music application. You choose the source to get the music you want and then follow the instructions.

You finished reading the article "How to use eSound Music to play music on your computer" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.