

How to use Makisoda to store videos up to 5GB

Makisoda is a video hosting site that supports up to 1GB of storage per uploaded video. Users can upload videos to Makisoda and then embed the videos on other websites easily.

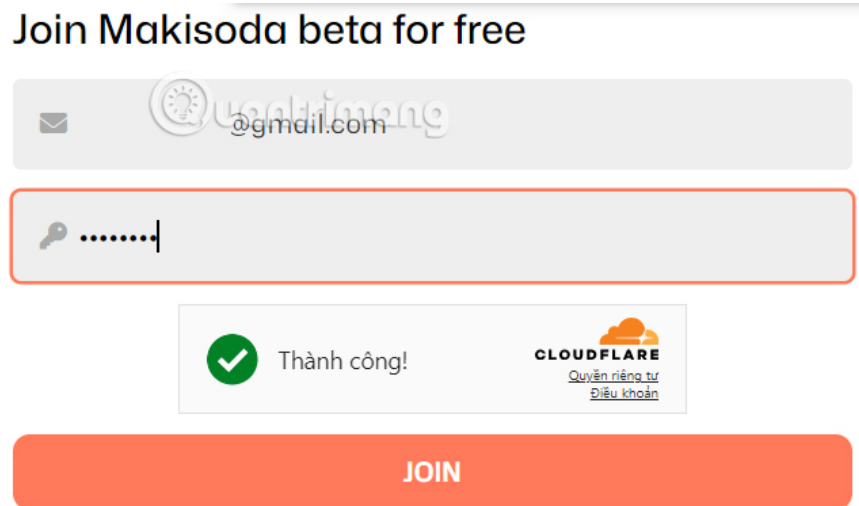

Although videos hosted on Makisoda are limited to a maximum of 1 minute, there is no limit on the number of uploads. Here are instructions for using Makisoda to host videos.

How to use Makisoda to store videos

Step 1:

You access the link below to access the Makisoda website. Next, you enter the email and password for the Makisoda account, then click Join below.

The screenshot shows a registration form titled "Join Makisoda beta for free". It includes an email input field with a placeholder "@gmail.com", a password input field with a key icon and a red border, and a "JOIN" button. Below the form, a confirmation message reads "Thành công!" (Success!) next to a green checkmark icon. To the right of the message is the Cloudflare logo and the text "Quyền riêng tư" and "Điều khoản".

Step 2:

Then you enter the verification code sent to the email address registered with Makisoda.
