

How to use WhatsApp on Mac

Despite the fierce competition with Telegram and Signal, WhatsApp remains the most popular messaging platform in the world. According to figures calculated by the end of 2020, this Facebook service has more than 2 billion users worldwide and the number continues to grow.

A lot of Mac users need to use this messaging platform on their devices. In the article below, I will guide you to read how to use WhatsApp on a Mac.

How does WhatsApp work on the Mac?

There are two ways to access your WhatsApp account from a Mac computer. You can use the web version of WhatsApp, or if you don't like it, you can use a separate version.

WhatsApp has a free WhatsApp Desktop app on the App Store, and third-party WhatsApp partners like FreeChat and ChatMate are also available on the online store. Whichever app you choose, the features are basically the same, giving you access to your WhatsApp chats.

How to use WhatsApp on Mac

Open a web browser on Mac and go to the WhatsApp website. Or launch WhatsApp Desktop for macOS or a third-party WhatsApp enabled app.

Step 1. Open WhatsApp on iPhone .

Step 2. Select Settings .

Step 3. Select WhatsApp Web / Desktop .

Step 4. Click the blue Link a Device button .

5. Grab your iPhone's camera to scan the QR code displayed on the WhatsApp website or in the app you are using.

Once the QR code scan is finished, the sync is complete, you can see all your iPhone conversations have appeared on your Mac computer. You can also send and receive messages and all other tasks just as you would on an iPhone.
