

How to watch Netflix videos at the same time with remote friends

To watch Netflix videos together with distant friends, we can install the Netflix Party utility on Chrome browser.

The trend of watching videos at the same time with distant people is no longer a new concept, when you can watch YouTube videos at the same time with many people. With Netflix, although this feature is not yet applied, we can use the Netflix Party support utility.

Netflix Party is a Chrome installation utility, which allows users to connect other people remotely to watch Netflix videos. The utility will synchronize the movie watching parties, display the chat window so that we can comment on the movie together. Note that this utility will only work for those with Netflix accounts and also has a Netflix Party utility installed.
