

How to Watch Vines

This wikiHow will teach you how to find old Vine videos to watch. Although Vine was shut down in 2017, many people still share direct links to Vine videos on Twitter, which you can check out at Vpeeker.com. You can also find thousands of...

Watching Random Vines on Vpeeker

Go to <http://www.vpeeker.com> in a browser. You can use any web browser, mobile or desktop, to watch random Vine videos. As soon as the page loads, a random Vine will begin to play. After the first video plays, the next will begin automatically.

1. The Vines in Vpeeker are harvested from Twitter. You can click the Twitter profile link (it starts with @) or the date near the top-right corner to view the person's Twitter profile.

Interact with the video on Twitter (optional). You can like, retweet, or reply to a video on Twitter using the icons next to the Facebook "f" icon. The reply icon looks like a curved arrow pointing to the left, the retweet icon looks like a box made out of arrows, and the like icon looks like a star. Any of these actions require you to log in to Twitter.

Searching for Vines on YouTube

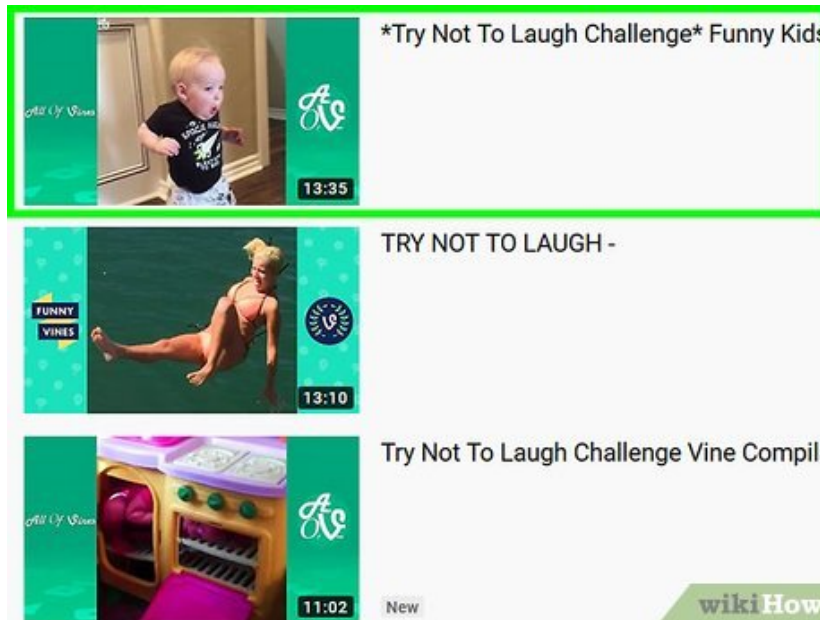

Open YouTube on your computer, phone, or tablet. You can use the YouTube mobile app or visit <https://youtube.com> in a web browser.

Search Vines in the search bar. It runs along the top of the page if you're using a computer. If you're using the mobile app, tap the magnifying glass icon at the top-right corner to open the search bar first.

1. Add other keywords to your search to find exactly what you're looking for. For example, try searching for funny vines, fail vines, cat vines, or kids vines.

Select a search result to watch it. You'll see search results from YouTubers like All of Vines, Funny Vines, and Best Viners.

1. You can click or tap the YouTube channel's name to see all the uploads provided by that channel.
2. If you like the channel, click or tap Subscribe to see future uploads.
