

How to write special characters in Boom Mobile

In addition to naming characters Boom Mobile with special characters, you can use them in the chat channel

In the past, with Boom Online version on PC, players can create special characters with Alt key combination plus with the number key on the right is able to create special characters to chat with friends . As for Boom Mobile, there is no such key combination so that players can actively create special characters.

If you are trying to create a few characters that stand out in the chat frame, you can refer to the list of special characters allowed in Boom Mobile under this article.
