Envy 13 reduced by 450 USD compared to before.

Few days after Dell lowered the price for the ultra-thin Adamo model, HP did the same for the Envy 13. The $ 450 reduction (from $ 1,499 previously to $ 999) was not as high as Dell but still attractive. For those who are intending to choose this model.

Configuration for this price model includes 13.1 inch screen size resolution of 1366 x 768 pixels, Core 2 Duo SL9300 processor with speed of 1.6 GHz, DDR3 RAM of 3GB, hard drive capacity of 250GB and ATI Mobility Radeon HD 4330 graphics card.

Envy 13 is equipped with optical read / write DVD drive, Beats Audio high-end audio and Windows 7 Home Premium 64-bit operating system pre-installed.

This model is currently allowed by HP to place orders on its official sales website.
