HP has just introduced the HP Compaq 6530s business notebook with a compact design and powerful configuration, suitable for business people or young people or frequent travel.

HP Compaq 6530s

The HP Compaq 6530s is the perfect replacement for the HP Compaq 6520s, which is very popular in the Vietnamese market. This product line has many outstanding features: Intel® Core™2 Duo processor supports users to handle multitasking, along with intelligent battery saving mode, maximizing the time to use the device.

In addition, HP ProtectTools technology has the ability to encrypt data on the hard drive to protect the confidential information of users even when the machine falls under the control of others.
