

Impressive Halloween decoration with old bottles

A bit of creativity, a little skillful you can turn old glass bottles into colorful, creepy lights to decorate Halloween night.

You want to organize for your family, friends at home, company or class a memorable Halloween night, the unique lights from old bottles will help you to have strange and beautiful decorations. .

A bit of creativity, a little skillful you can turn old glass bottles into colorful, creepy lights to decorate Halloween night.

Materials needed.

1. Old glass bottles, plastic bottles.
2. Spray paint bottle.
3. Ribbon, colored paper, shrug paper, watercolor, brush, small led light bulb, some plastic toy animals.
4. Other tools such as scissors, bandages, glue, fastening rope.

How to decorate bottles for horror Halloween night

1. With this shaped glass bottle, you use the shrug paper around the body of the jar (the color, the thickness of this layer is optional). Then you apply decorative motifs such as demon mouth, pumpkin shape, . cut with colored paper onto the body of the jar. Put the led light inside the jar as you complete the job.

2. To get this frightening lamp that many people frightened, you just need to take a photo to enlarge anyone's face (choose a face with a terrifying expression) and put it in a glass jar. To increase the creepyness, you should add a little splitting rope inside.

3. In order to have this lamp, spray black on the body into the crown (only blurred), then apply the glue or spider plastic toys on the inside of the jar.

4. With old bottles shaped like this, you can decorate it by coating a transparent opaque primer on the whole bottle of wine. You can choose the typical horror motifs on Halloween night like bats, spiders, too pumpkin to paste on the bottle surface. Finally, you put the led light inside and use the ribbon to shape the bow at the neck.

5. With the bottle of sampanh, you only need to have a white paint on the outside of the bottle, followed by a silver emulsion on the entire body of the bottle. Use black emulsion cover underneath to increase the macabre and creepyness. Finally put a fake spider and use a white marker to draw the spider web.

6. With this simple decoration, you only need to spray a layer of paint (the color you choose) and then use the colored marker to draw on the patterns that you like.

7. You just need to use the tape to wrap around the glass bottle and attach more eyes to create a unique lamp. Don't forget to put in a candle or led light.

8. From the fanta, cocacola plastic bottles, cut the top part of the bottle with a knife and cover the remaining body with the paint. After the paint is dry, you just need to use a crayon to paint on it, such as spider web, clown face, demon face, etc., to complete an item to decorate Halloween night.

Video detailing how to create simple Halloween lights from old bottles

Here are some simple but equally intricate Halloween decoration ideas, unique suggestions for you. With available materials, a little creativity, you will surely have an impressive Halloween space.

Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Impressive Halloween decoration with old bottles" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
