

Incredibly the Maryland bus driver read the newspaper when he was driving

Police officials said the Maryland bus driver was 'suspended' after a video spread that he read the newspaper while driving a bus carrying passengers.

1. 8 world famous abandoned places make you shiver
2. 14 strange images found on Google Maps make you confused

Police officials said the Maryland bus driver was "suspended" after a video spread that he read the newspaper while driving a bus carrying passengers.

A Tweeter account named Myles Hill posted a video showing a driver reading a newspaper and driving a bus number 26 at College Park.

Hill said he and a friend were shocked to see this scene in the car.

" I asked my friend: 'Is the driver reading the newspaper?' and she replied, "Yes, that's right," Hill told The Washington Post.

The University of Maryland student said that the driver missed a stop because he was distracted by the paper.

Metro transport spokesman Dan Stessel said officials had identified the driver's identity and gave him a break to conduct an investigation.

Dan Stessel also shared, the current name of this irresponsible man is not disclosed in accordance with local law's privacy policy.

You finished reading the article "Incredibly the Maryland bus driver read the newspaper when he was driving" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

---