

Information about League of Legends Dragon Ball

This is the idea of the Elemental Dark Dragon, including the indicators for defeating the Shadow Dragon.

Elemental Dragon is a mechanism that has long been present in League of Legends. But not until season 10, the role of the dragon really stand out.

If Dragon eating before only brought a few indicators and not so important then now. Right now, the stats when eating Dragon have become more necessary. Not only that, the ability to change the map of the dragons also gives gamers a very interesting experience with each different element.

If you feel that the Four Elements are too small, then try to see information about the idea of the Dark Elemental Dragon - Nocturne's lost brother.

Stats add when defeating Dark Dragon:

1. Cooldowns on Vision Accessories cooldown reduced by 10/15/20/30%
2. Totem Eyes' lifespan increases by 15/25/30/35%.
3. Lens Eye health increased from 1 to 3
4. Dragon Spirit: Every 10 seconds, an attack or skill on an enemy champion will cause them to lose vision for 1 second.
5. Night Map: Night has come! Things get darker .

If the 3rd Elemental Dragon is Dark, it will restrict visibility from all sources:

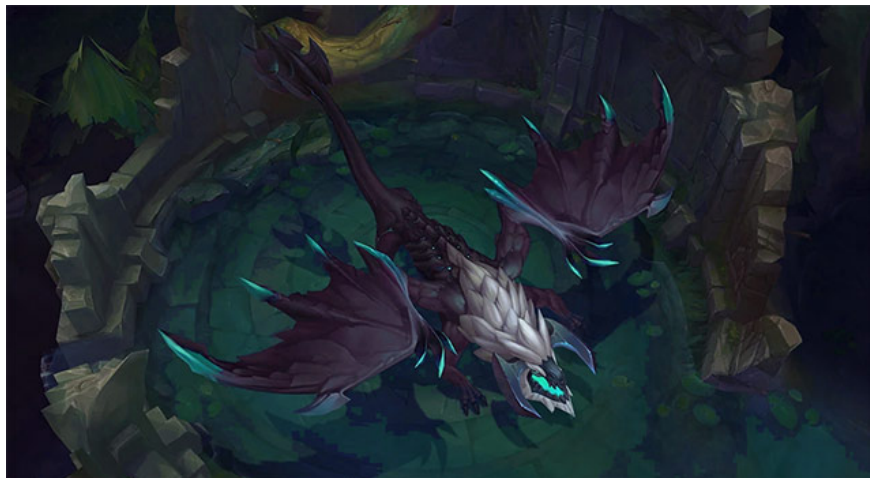

1. Base vision decreased from 1095 to 900
2. Hero vision decreased from 1200 to 1050.

3. Visibility while in dust decreased from 1050 to 950.
4. Visibility and life time of Vision Equipment have been reduced by 15%.
5. There is no absolute view at the base.

According to the above indicators, it seems that the Shadow Dragon will not increase its power. But it offers better vision control - a crucial factor if you want to win in the end.

In addition to the effect of the map effect when Dragon 3 appears, gamers will have to be more careful in controlling and moving. It is also what will bring assassin generals back after a season without appearing.

The idea of ??Shadow Dragon is also responded by many gamers and is accompanied by positive suggestions. Anyway, having a new Elemental Dragon will be interesting in League of Legends.
