

Information about Sett's skill set - New champion in League of Legends

This is the information about General Gladiator Sett, a new champion with a very rough and powerful skill set that will appeal to many gamers who like the melee genre.

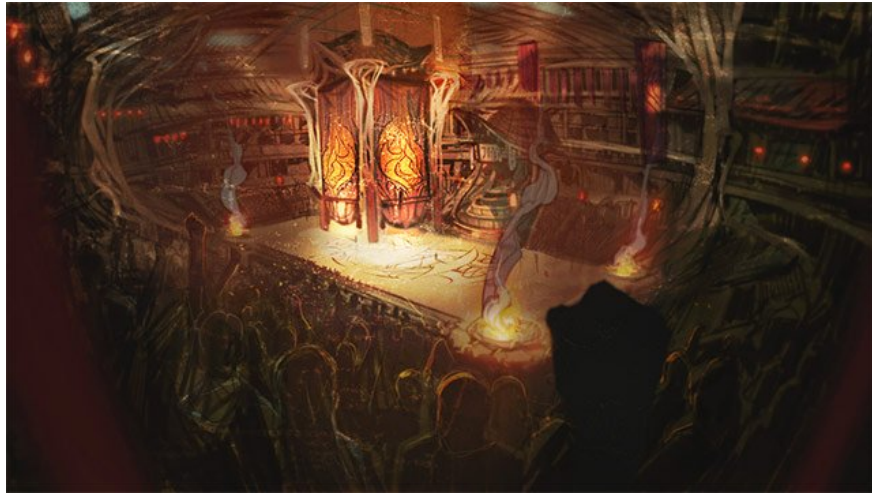

League of Legends players have heard some information, and they believe there will be two new generals added to the game. Last month, Riot Games announced in the generals launch roadmap that there will be two new generals in development. One gunner we all know is Aphelios and a Gladiator known as Sett.

Although Aphelios has not yet appeared, there is information about gladiators Sett. Below is a description of this champion in the development roadmap of the previous Riot Games to compare the similarities and describe the skill set of Sett right below.

Welcome to the underworld

"A brave resurgent from the underworld of Ionia. It has been a long time since we created a strong, direct Hero-type general, since the last one was Darius. So we feel this is the right time to fill that void. The new champion will shine in the middle of the fight, happily taking tons of damage and then release all the energy and frantically return it fists. If you prefer to use your fists instead of talking, rushing into the arena and smashing your enemies together, this is probably the general for you. "

According to information from the emails sent the Sett test invitation. This champion will have a total of 4 skills with 4 different descriptions of Gladiator Sett in accordance with the description in the route. Below is a description of Sett's skill set.

The first is the Q skill "Punch in the face", using fists instead of words as described above.

Skill W "If you have good skills, take this hand" - Rushed into the battlefield

Skill F - Smashing the opponent's head into each other as described above.

R - Releasing all the stored energy into an opponent exactly as described "Liberating all energies and frantically returning frantic punches"

Currently we do not know the official time to launch League of Legends, but maybe this champion will appear in early 2020.
