Instructions for connecting Smart TV to the speaker

First of all, you need to determine which TV your home has a standard audio output port, usually a 3.5mm or RCA jack (lotus).

After you know the correct audio output port, you need to choose to buy the connection cord accordingly. Specifically, the TV has port 3.5, select the jack 3.5 out of the lotus. "And the television with the lotus port selects the two ends of the lotus."

The above process is complete, you follow the following steps to connect Smart TV with the speaker:

Step 1: You plug the cord into the audio output port of the TV (3.5mm jack or RCA lotus port).

Step 2: Plug the other end of the connecting cord into the pull speaker.

Step 3: Turn on the TV, then access the YouTube application and search for the song you want to sing at the search bar.

Step 4: Adjust the TV volume to 0, then turn on the speaker power, increase the volume, adjust the parameters. Done, now you can pick up the microphone and start singing.

It's simple and easy, isn't it? Hopefully with the tips above, you can connect the speaker with Smart TV to your home and have fun moments 'extreme' with relatives and friends.

Having fun.
