

Instructions for creating groups on Facebook

Creating a group on Facebook will make it easier for users to talk about the same issue, connecting with people more easily.

Creating groups on Facebook will help users easily exchange tasks with each other, exchange public content in the group, not just in the Facebook chat group. You can now set up 3 different modes for the Facebook group, which is a public, closed group, so everyone can find the group, but only the posting members and secret groups are only for the group members. Facebook.
