

Instructions for downloading files from Google Drive without limit

Having trouble downloading files from Google Drive or running into storage limits? This guide will help you download files faster, fix common errors, and get the most out of Google Drive.

Downloading files from Google Drive seems simple but can be error-prone or limited. TipsMake will guide you how to download files quickly and without problems.

How to download files on Google Drive

Step 1 : Download and install Google Drive

- If you don't have a Google account, you need to sign up for Gmail .

Step 2 : Sign in to Google.

One account. All of Google.

Sign in with your Google Account

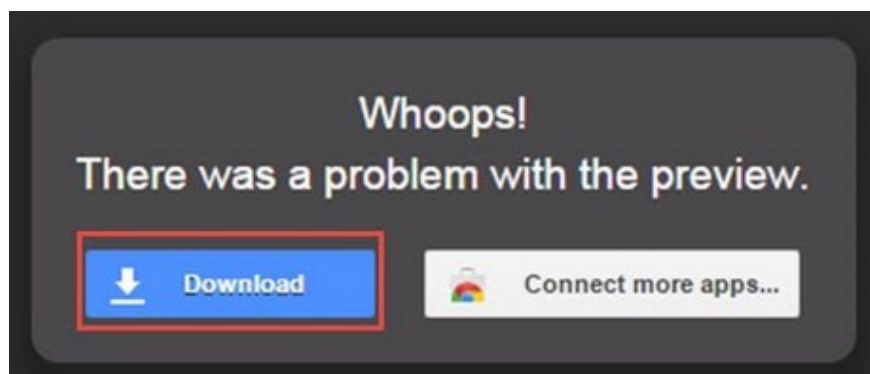

A screenshot of the Google sign-in interface. At the top is a grey circular profile icon. Below it is a text input field containing the email address "taimienphi2014@gmail.com". Underneath the email field is a password field with ten dots. A blue "Sign in" button is positioned below the password field. At the bottom left, there is a checked checkbox labeled "Stay signed in". At the bottom right, there is a blue link labeled "Need help?".

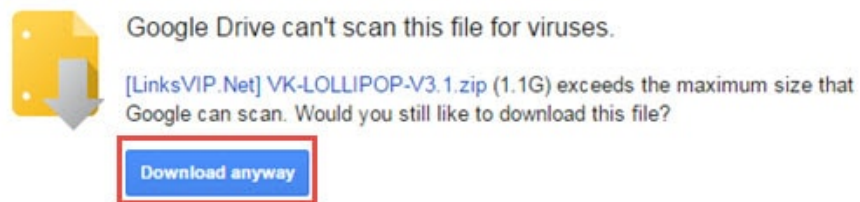

Step 3 : Find the file you want to download.

For example, Free Download wants to download the ROM for LG G2 that users share online.

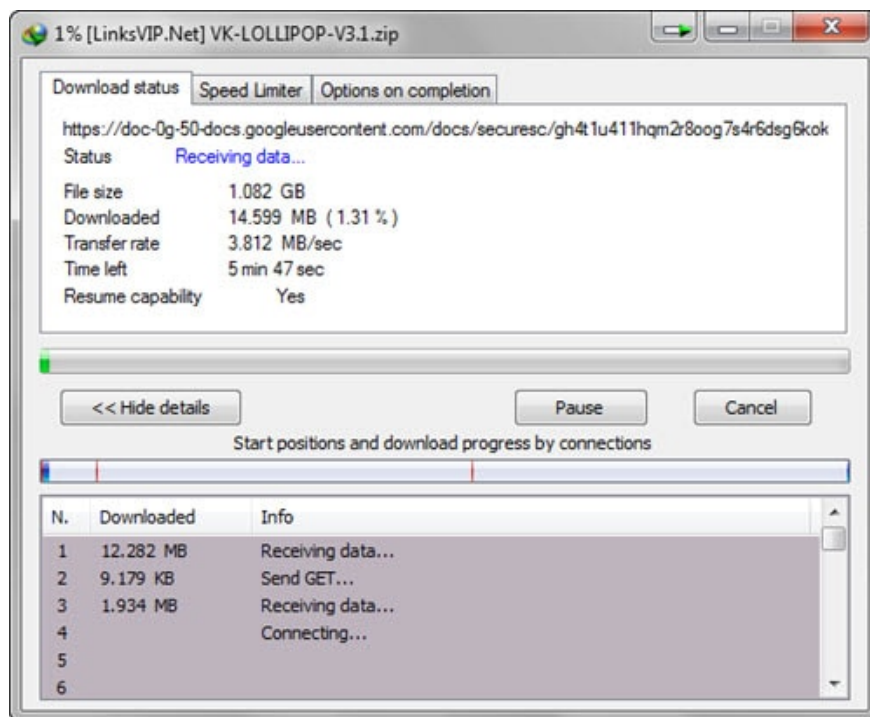

Step 4 : When you click on the link, you will be redirected to the Google Drive download page. Now click on the Download button .

Click on the Download anyway button .

The download process will take place.

Google Drive limits the number of file downloads per day, but you can download multiple files from Google Drive at the same time or use IDM to increase file download speed. If you encounter an error, try checking your connection or using the Google Drive API to download large files.

You finished reading the article "Instructions for downloading files from Google Drive without limit" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.