Criminal careers in GTA Online

When players create a new character, they will be introduced to the following 4 occupations:

1. Motorcyclists
2. Manager
3. Archer
4. Nightclub owner

After choosing a career, the player will receive $4 million for the purchase of associated assets, vehicles, and weapons of that profession. Money is absolutely everyone and can be freely used in any way you want. Each career path will have different priorities for upgrading weapons, vehicles or businesses.

Motorcyclist (Biker)

Biker is a great career path for newbies as it is simple with low investment. With this option, the player will start as a motorcycle club member. The main job of this profession is making money and fake documents, trading banned goods, . to make money.

Players need to source their supplies by stealing or making their own. If you're playing solo, it's best to ship as soon as each batch is processed to accommodate shipping times.

Career is a pretty good path to start if you're new to the game. In addition, players will get the title of MC President, which is quite convenient in GTA 5.

Director (Executive)

Choosing this career the player will become a CEO with an office and a warehouse. That is why this is arguably the best criminal career to choose. With the inventory, the player can sell vehicles and special goods, bringing in large amounts of cash.

The secret to success is to source standard and mid-range vehicles so that future premium sources can be obtained and further increase profits.

Gamers can perform special cargo transport missions by buying cars or garages. Players trigger Crate recovery operations and store them in their backlot or garage to later sell them at a premium.

Gunrunner (Gunrunner)

If you choose to become a gunner, everyone will be able to own a bunker right from the start and this is a really valuable asset. However, using Bunker is quite a complicated job and it is advisable to learn about how to make money with Bunker before joining.

First, players need to use their own money for equipment and staff upgrades, which cost $1.5 million. A gunner's job is to find supplies or steal products. When assigning production staff, the stock scale will increase and it is possible to sell them for a profit.

Nightclub owner

At first, nightclub owner seems like an attractive choice, but it is actually the worst career out of the 4. Although this path has many different activities, it is not possible to earn as much money as a gunner or a director. On top of that, gamers need to spend a lot of upfront costs to start a business.

The business is mainly concerned with hiring technicians and assigning them to work in import, freight, pharmaceutical research, sporting goods, etc. So first of all people need must own these businesses. The advantage is that the nightclub owner doesn't really have to do anything and gets a passive income.

GTA 5 best crime job

GTA 5 best criminal career is gunner. With this career path, players can access the Bunker with MK2 weapons and vehicle upgrades. Above all, the business can bring a steady income.

Then the director and the motorcyclist are also pretty good options. The ultimate goal of the player is to get $2.2 million to own the Kosatka submarine. The gamer will then be able to do the Cayo Perico Heist, which is the best money-making activity available today and can be done alone.
