

Instructions for removing fake Internet Security 2010 software

Internet Security 2010 - aka IS2010, is one of the members of the 'family' of Advanced Virus Remover fake security software

Internet Security 2010 - Internet Security 2010 - also known as IS2010, is one of the members of the 'family' of Advanced Virus Remover fake security software . With Trojan-based and malware-based mechanisms, primarily targeting vulnerabilities in the browser, thereby spreading and silently installing on Windows operating systems. After successfully installing the victim's computer, Internet Security 2010 will automatically activate the scanning process and display false information about the computer's security status:

The main interface of Internet Security 2010

Internet Security 2010 warnings seem to be very convincing, so many people believe in this information and are hard-pressed to buy the key to activate the program. For fake applications like this, we recommend users to use Spyware Doctor with Antivirus.

Manual steps to remove Internet Security 2010

First, open Task Manager or Process Explorer and turn off the following processes: IS2010.exe 41.exe (main program), winlogon32.exe and smss32.exe (display the red X icon under the system tray). Then, find and delete the following files and folders:

C: Program FilesInternetSecurity2010IS2010.exe

C: windowssystem32smss32.exe

C: windowssystem32winlogon32.exe

Internet Security 2010.link

Then, proceed with the following registry keys:

HKEY_CURRENT_USERSoftwareIS2010

HKEY_CURRENT_USERSoftwareMicrosoftWindowsCurrentVersionRun "Internet Security 2010"

HKEY_LOCAL_MACHINESOFTWAREMicrosoftWindowsCurrentVersionRun "winlogon32.exe"

HKEY_USES / S-1-5-21-854245398-725345543-1237497594-1003-SoftwareIS2010

When performing the above steps without any problems, it means that you have successfully removed the fake Internet Security 2010 security software from the system. For added security, you should consult the features and use the security programs of the following reputable brands: Spyware Doctor with Antivirus, Norton, Trend Micro, Kaspersky, AVG, MalwareBytes or others The Meta security application is available here.

You finished reading the article "Instructions for removing fake Internet Security 2010 software" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.