

Instructions on how to see what you like on Facebook?

Have you ever questioned yourself since using Facebook so far, have you liked any status, photos or videos? It sounds a bit absurd, but the fact is that you can do this with the help of the search bar. You can even see what other people have clicked like on Facebook without accessing their account.

Have you ever questioned yourself since using Facebook so far, have you "liked" the status, photos or videos? It sounds a bit absurd, but the fact is that you can do this with the help of the search bar. You can even see what other people have clicked like on Facebook without accessing their account.

Step 1 : At the search box on the Facebook interface, type the words Photos liked by me

Step 2 : Soon afterwards, a series of suggested photos will appear before your eyes. If you want to see all, click See more and you will see all the photos you like.

Similarly, you can also find out if your friends, relatives or even "idols" like what just need to determine the exact display name of that Facebook account. For example, here we look at the singer and actor page Ngo Thanh Van

However, if the photo that the people you want to see click Like is set to private, you will not be able to see them appear.
