

Instructions to change Windows 7 password

Instructions to change the password Windows 7 - To protect the computer from being used by others, you need to set a password for the computer.

To protect the computer from being used by others, you need to set a password for the computer. Entering the correct password can access the computer so it can protect data and information on the computer is safe.

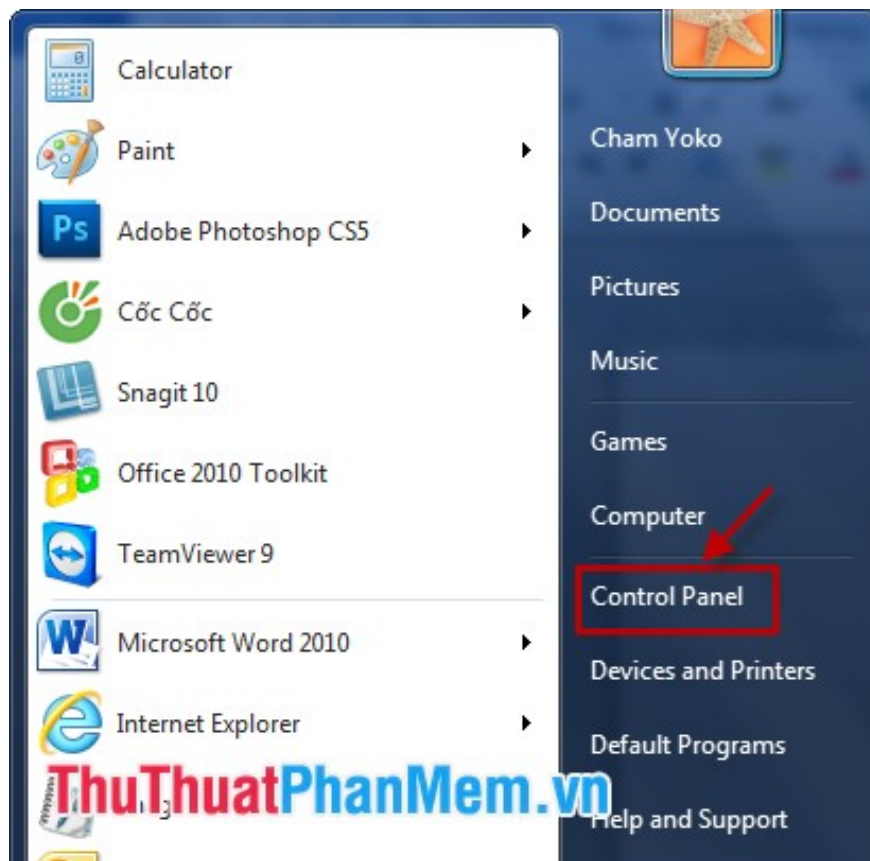

In addition, it is necessary to change your password regularly for more security. The article shows you how to install, change the password for Windows 7.

Set a password for Windows 7

Step 1: First you need to open User Accounts .

You go to Start -> Control Panel .

Then select User Accounts .

Or you can choose Start and then choose directly on the icon as shown:

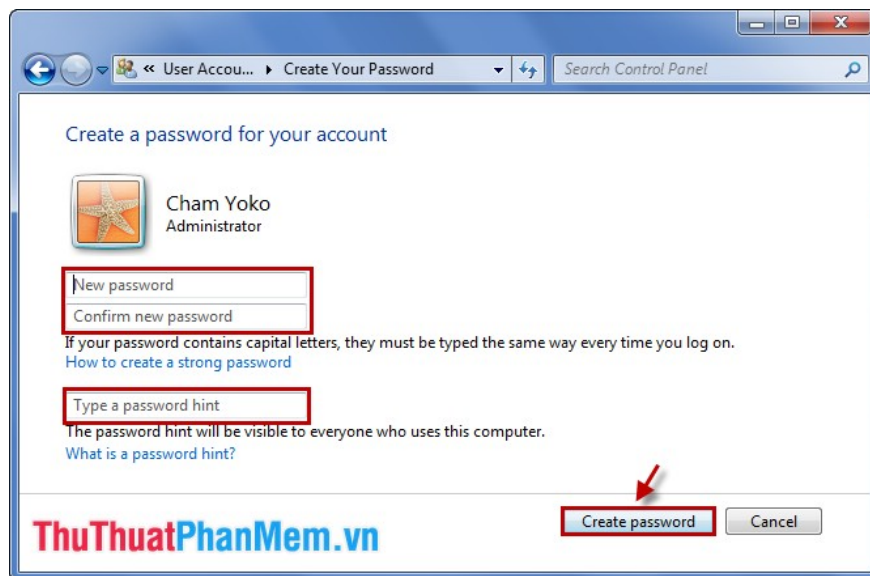

Step 2: Create a password for your computer.

You choose Create a password for your account .

Here, you enter the password in the New password box and re-enter the password in the Confirm new password box . You can enter a password reminder word in the Type a password hint box so that when you forget the password, the reminder word will appear to help you remember the password. Finally select Create password.

How to change the password for Windows 7

In the User Account, select Change your password .

In Change your password you enter the following information:

- Current password: The current password.
- New password: New password .
- Confirm new password: Retype the new password.
- Type a password hint: A reminder for a new password.

Then choose Change password .

Now that you know how to set a password and change the password for Windows 7, you need to change the password regularly for better security. Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Instructions to change Windows 7 password" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.