How to edit someone else's WhatsApp messages

By default, WhatsApp does not have the option to edit other people's messages, but you can still change their messages to send to others very simply.

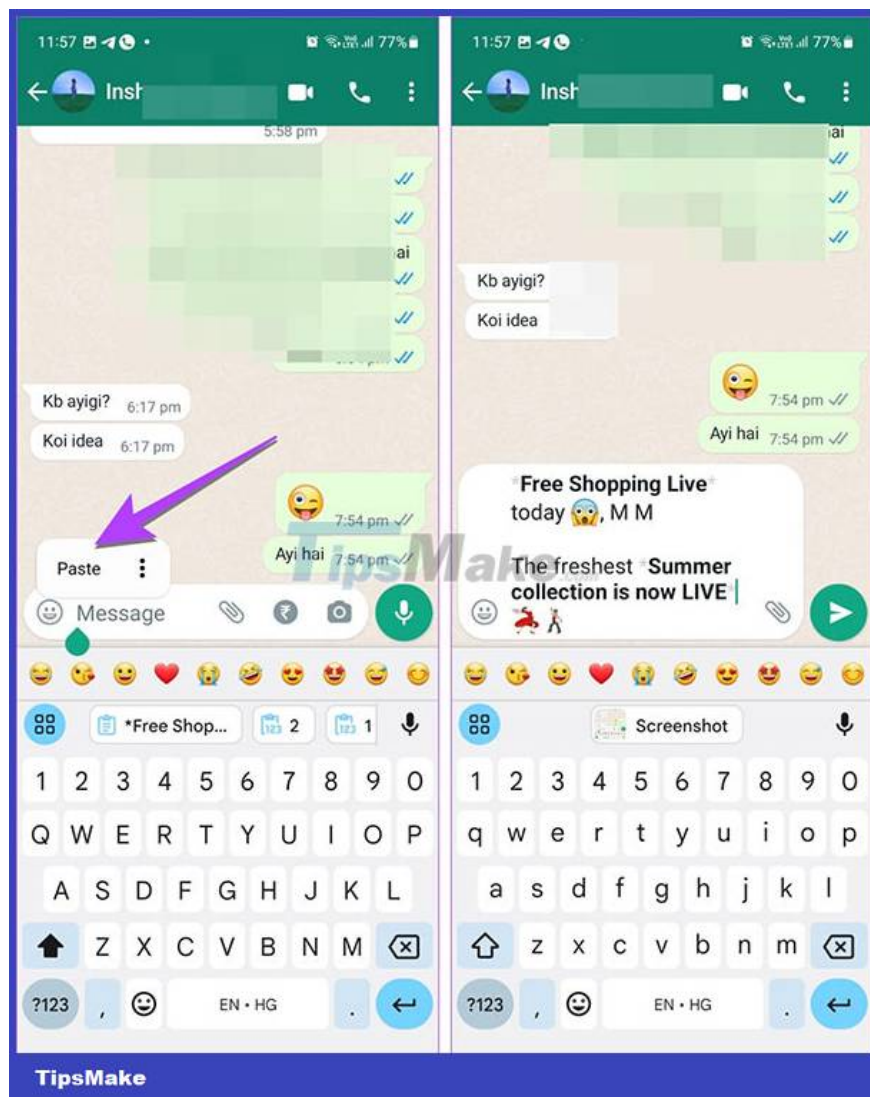

Step 1:

At someone else's WhatsApp message you want to forward or send to someone, we press and hold on the message and then select the 3 dots icon and press Copy .

Step 2:

Now open another chat and paste the message I just copied for easy editing. As a result, we will see the person's message in the message content input box so we can edit the message to our liking.

So you can edit other people's messages as you like very simply.
