

Instructions to hide phone numbers, hide personal information on Zalo

Zalo is a mobile chat application used by many people in Vietnam, especially for young people because of its easy-to-use interface, high connectivity, multi-platform support. And like on Facebook, you can hide personal information before strangers to ensure privacy and personal safety. If you don't know how to do it, you can follow the steps below.

The development of chat and texting applications such as Skype, Zalo or Facebook has helped users have more communication methods, shortening the distance of contact with friends. Whether in any position or in any form, we can quickly text, call or make video calls to friends. However, that convenience also entails many problems, especially the disclosure of personal information.

Like Facebook, Zalo also lets the default mode display the user's birthday. And quite a lot of people don't want to reveal that year of birth to friends and strangers. So how can I hide all information on the year of birth on Zalo? Along with the Network Administrator, how to set up the hidden date of birth, block strangers to see personal information on Zalo in the tutorial below.

1. Download the Zalo app on Android
2. Download the Zalo app on iOS

Step 3:

In the Privacy setting interface there will be many items for users to adjust the information modes on the personal page. You scroll down to the Personal Information section that will have the Display of Birth Date section, with the default display full. When you click on it will see a pop-up window with options to hide or show birthday information, including:

1. Not visible to others : Hide birth date with everyone.
2. Full date year : Full display of date, month, year of birth with everyone.

3. Show date, hide year of birth : Displays the date of birth with everyone but only displays the date and month of the year of birth.

Users choose 1 of 3 options to set up. If we want to hide all information, click on Don't show to others.
