

Instructions to hide slides on Google Slides

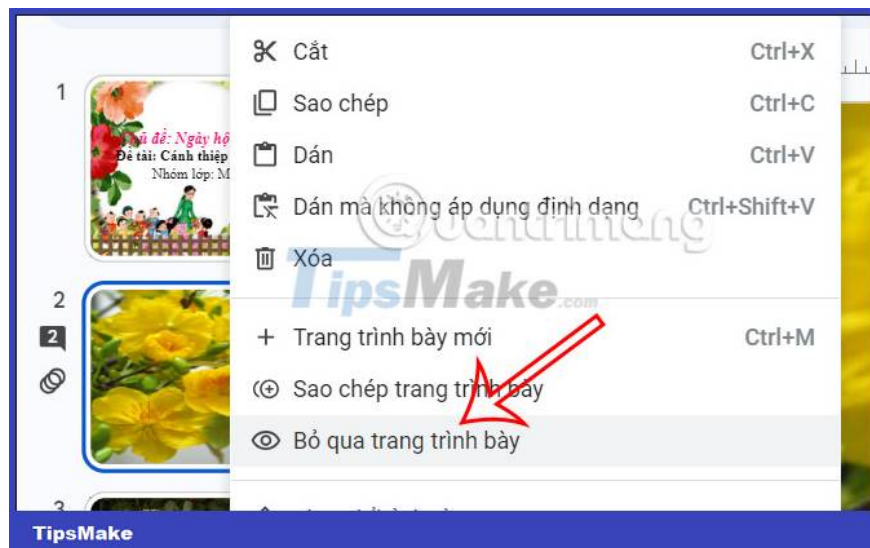

To hide slides on Google Slides, we have 2 different ways to do it with the same simple way as when you hide slides on PowerPoint.

To hide slides on Google Slides, we have 2 different ways to do it with the same simple way as when you hide slides on PowerPoint. After you hide the slide on Google Slides, that slide will not be displayed while we present. You can right-click the slide you want to hide to hide it or use the slide menu to customize. The following article will guide you to hide slides on Google Slides.

How to hide slides on Google Slides with the right-click menu

Step 1:

First we access the slide on Google Slides as usual. Then, at the slide that the user wants to hide when presenting, right-click and select Skip this slide .

Step 2:

Right after that you will see at the slide you want to hide showing the crossed eye icon .

Step 3:

To hide multiple slides, hold down the Ctrl key and then click on the slides you want to hide. Then also right-click and select Skip Slides.

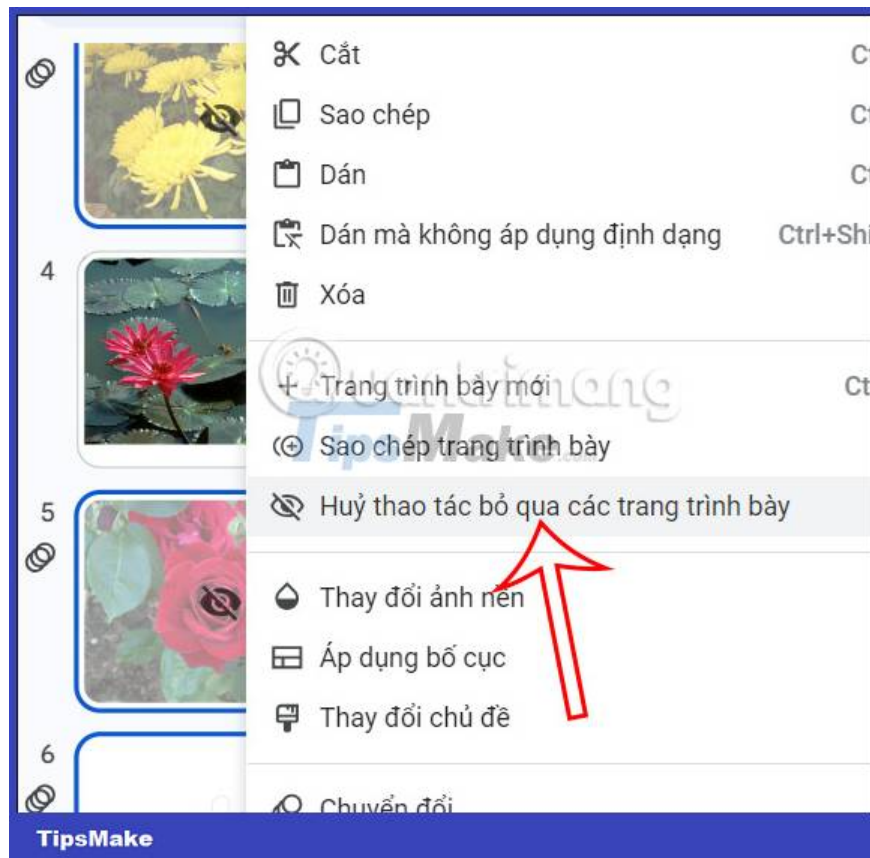

As a result, you also see those slides are hidden.

Step 4:

To show the slides that we hide again , you just need to click on the slide again and then right-click and select Cancel skipping slides .

Then the slides were displayed again.

How to hide slides on Google Slides via menu

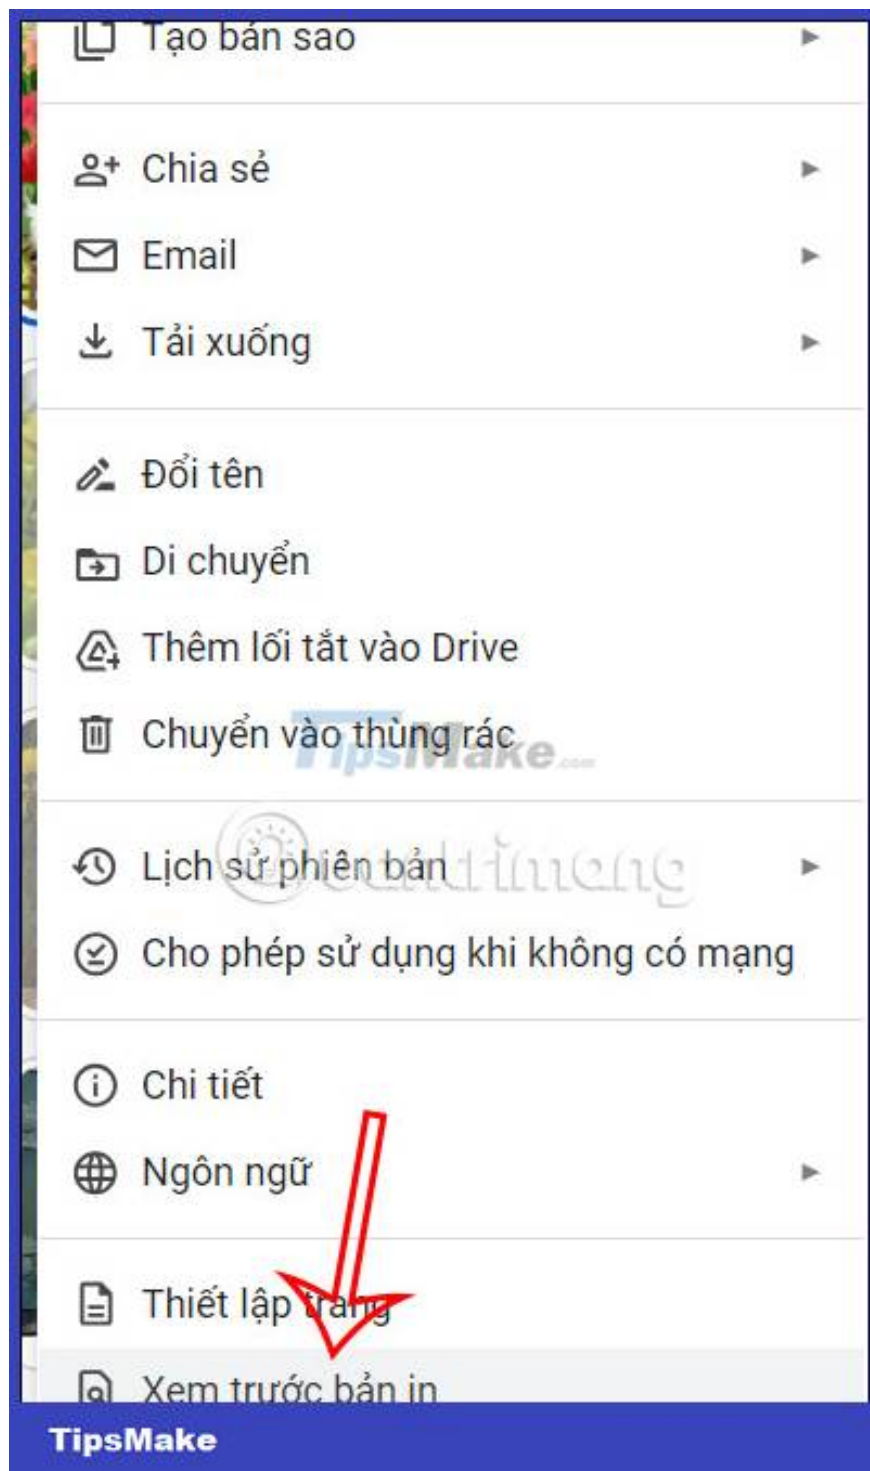

Very simply, at the slide you want to hide we click and then look at the toolbar, click Slides and then select Skip this slide .

How to print Google Slides slides ignoring hidden slides

Step 1:

At the interface on Google Slides, click File and then select Print Preview .

Step 2:

Display the slide view interface before printing, we will uncheck the box at Include skipped slides to not print hidden slides.

You finished reading the article "Instructions to hide slides on Google Slides" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.