1. Color loot

This is one of the special features needed for gamers, especially when in the last round, the list of items will appear with the graded color of the item's item. You can easily look at the most advanced and necessary equipment to loot, avoid having to pull up and down and choose items that are very time consuming. Not to mention that the enemy who saw you at that time is highly likely that you have to lie down to hug your stomach.

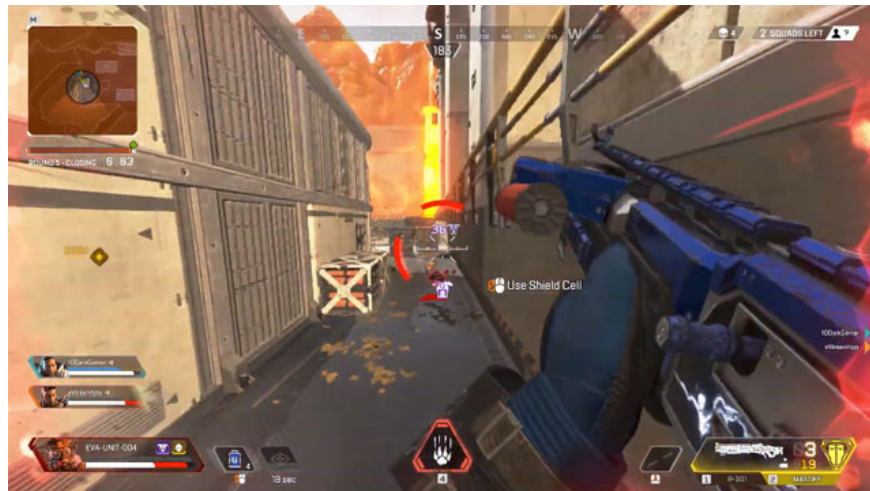

2. Revive

This is a pretty big plus of Apex Legends compared to other survival games, if in other survival games, you get defeated, you only have to go out and get a new game. But with the other Apex Legends, death is not sure it is over, just if your teammates are alive, you will have the opportunity to return to the ring.

If your teammates die, all members of a squad can collect the Token of the dead player, then revive at the special beacon. Although you will come back and start building with empty hands, at least you will still be able to return to the game and your teammates can partially support the equipment.

3. Index of damage

Like most action games, Apex Legends will statistically show pretty damage and partition each section of the body. If it is on the legs and arms, the damage will be lighter (x1). In the chest, the neck and head will be 1.5 or twice higher.

Based on this you can choose different recoil weapons such as vertical and recoil, high jerks to attack the enemy, of course depending on the situation and the different distances you should choose. The gas is suitable for the situation.

4. Climbing the wall

Must say climbing features in Apex Legends are quite special and create flexibility for the characters, some games have the ability to drop people or climb walls in locations not too high. Apex Legends is also available, but the game does not introduce gamers to this feature, you can drop people on the walls to hide or climb the idea banks not too high, from which running and observing will benefit more so.

5. Wraith

The Wraith has a rather special skill called Dimensional Rift, which can allow this character to create a fast teleporting portal, good support when fleeing enemies and moving. Not to mention that the Wraith also has temporary stealth and immortality skills, she can move faster when using the skill, however the Wraith will not be able to use weapons in this state.
