

Interesting uses of old newspapers

You may not know that old newspapers have many other very interesting and useful uses in your daily life.

Old newspapers will often be weighed and sold in bottles or used to wrap things and then put in the trash. However, you may not know that old newspapers have many other very interesting and useful uses in your daily life. The tips below can enrich what you already know about using old newspapers.

Keep the vegetable drawer in the fridge dry

Old newspaper keeps the vegetable drawer in the fridge dry

Housewives will probably be interested to know that another great use of old newspapers is to keep the vegetable drawer in the refrigerator dry and free of unpleasant odors. Simply spread the old newspaper on the bottom of the drawer before you put the vegetables in.

Help tomatoes ripen faster

Newspapers can also make tomatoes redder. Wrap each tomato with a piece of newspaper and place them in a warm room. You will see the tomatoes gradually change from green to berry red.

Open a beer bottle

Don't have a beer bottle opener? Take some old newspaper and fold it tightly so that it has enough leverage to help you open the beer bottle cap.

Packing fragile items

Use old newspaper to wrap fragile items

Do you have a lot of small porcelain and glass items that have to be packed in the same box to be shipped without them falling apart because they touch each other?

Simply use pieces of newspaper to wrap each item, putting them in a box. Finally crumpled up other pieces of newspaper and inserted them into the remaining spaces in the box, so you don't have to worry about your "pet" being broken anymore.

Gift wrapping

Use pages of brightly colored children's comics to wrap a birthday present for a child, or choose a wedding news clip to wrap an engagement gift. With just simple wrapping paper from newspaper, your gift seems "heavy" to add meaning many times over.

Dry waterlogged shoes

Use old newspaper to dry water-soaked shoes

Everyone knows that newspaper is a very water-loving thing, so if you get caught in the rain and wet your shoes, you can crumple old newspaper and stuff it inside and cover the outside of your shoes, then leave it overnight. As a result, you will see a dry shoe the next day.

Protect ancient paintings painted on glass

Newspapers also help protect ancient paintings painted on glass. If normal cleaning with a rag and soap can destroy the surface of the image drawn on the glass, then with just newspaper soaked in vinegar and warm water, you will clean the stains perfectly, keep the the drawings are not destroyed. Then dry the pictures on the freshly cleaned glass in dry air.

Clean glass balls

Use old newspaper to clean the glass

Another great use of old newspaper is to help clean the surfaces of glass doors, mirrors, . quickly. Wrinkle newspaper and absorb water and rub it on the glass, you will find it cleaner than wiping with a towel.

You can also spray the glass cleaner directly onto the mirror or window glass, then wipe it off with newspaper.

Pick up glass shards

If you accidentally drop a glass on the floor, pick up the large pieces first, then moisten a piece of newspaper and blot the remaining small pieces on the floor. Finally, pack them all up carefully and put them in the trash.

Make a broom to sweep spider webs

Use old newspaper as a broom to sweep spider webs

You can take some newspaper and cut one end into whiskers and roll it into a long tree, use it to make a broom to sweep away cobwebs and then put all this filth in the trash.

Eliminate the burning smell around the house

Both paper and ink can absorb odors, so try stuffing newspaper in smelly shoes, smelly lunch bags, the bottom of a trash can, or even a plastic food container, and let it sit for a few minutes. day, they will no longer stink.

Nurturing seeds to plant trees

Use old newspaper as a nursery pot to plant seeds

Roll an old newspaper into a cup and you've got yourself a free seedbed. As the plants grow, you can transfer the whole thing, including the newspaper, into your garden.

You finished reading the article "Interesting uses of old newspapers" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

---

