

Invite to admire Start Menu on Windows 10 completely new with modern design and more elegant

Recently, Cage Ata, a designer has shared the image of the idea of ??Start Menu with remarkable changes, creating good visual effects and creating a fresh feeling that many people can enjoy.

In the early stages of development, Windows 10's Start Menu has hardly changed. Although in recent versions, Microsoft has started to care about the Start Menu on Windows 10 but the improvements are not significant. Therefore, many users are really waiting on a renovation made on the Start Menu on Windows 10 in the near future.

Recently, Cage Ata, a designer has shared the image of the idea of ??Start Menu with remarkable changes, creating good visual effects and creating a fresh feeling that many people can enjoy.

One of the special features in Cage Ata's Start Menu is that he used the new Office icons redesigned and recently announced by Microsoft.

The new Start Menu also has the same bright interface as the leaked images of the Start Menu on Microsoft's next Windows 10 version.

The Start Menu background is blurred and looks very modern, the app icon is shaded and the dimension is quite subtle, making many people think of Fluent Design language.

As expected, Microsoft will release the next Windows 10 update in April 2019. Hopefully, the Windows 10 Start Menu will appear to change in this big update.

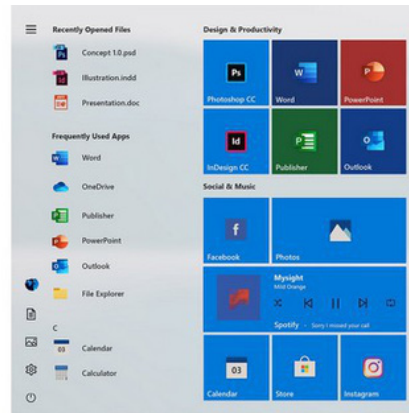

Here are some pictures of the new Start Menu idea, invite you to admire:

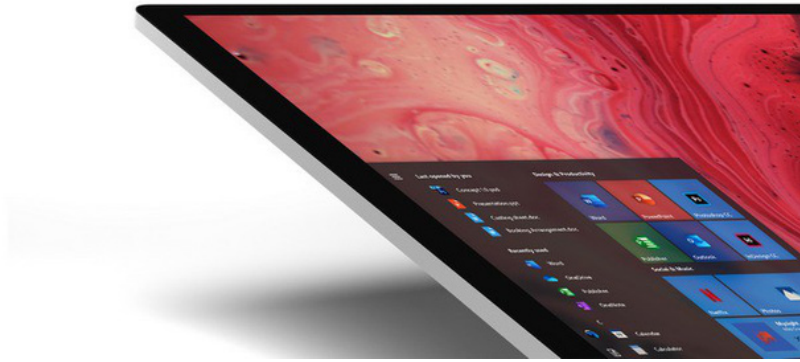

Small improvements

Subtle shadows and a bolder font choice add depth to the elements creating breathing space. The new set of icons not only add colour, but are easily distinguishable.
