1. Game mechanics and tactics

The boat carried troops to the battlefield

Boats were the means of returning to battle. Each boat can carry up to 6 armies. You should combine 2 armies with the same number of troops and the same class into 1 to increase the strength and number of troops on each boat. You can withdraw troops from the boat, but since all your forces are ready to fight every battle, it's better to have all units attack together to improve your chances of victory. . The boat is unlocked when you upgrade the main house.

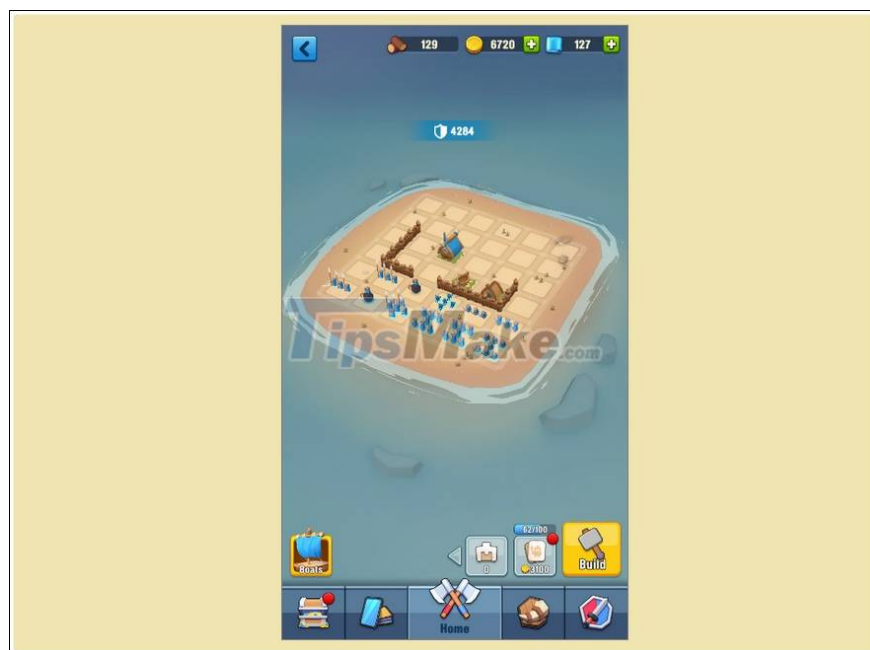

Start the fight and win the trophy

The battles are automatic and you just need to deploy troops to start fighting. As soon as the battle starts, you can lead your troops to attack your opponent from any direction on the island.

Sometimes your long-range attacker like archers will miss because the wind affects the battle. Therefore, you should deploy your army in the direction of the wind. You can determine the wind direction by looking at the waves. You will get trophy, bonus and wood with each win. The battle lasts for 2 minutes and ends when you knock down the main house, as well as other buildings of the enemy, even while the enemy is alive.

Construction of works on the island

On the island, you can build new structures and strongholds to protect your main house from enemy attacks. All soldiers stationed on the island will protect buildings and fight when the enemy arrives.

Rewards by rank

In addition to the loot you get after each victory, Island War also offers many other ways for you to earn rewards. Mines sometimes produce gold and gems. You can upgrade mines to increase the amount of gold and gems received. For every 10 badges you unlock a reward level. There are 35 reward levels in each season. In addition, you can also earn rewards from the arena.

Combat unit in Island War

Players can unlock many armies of different classes such as archers, swordsmen, mages, giants . and they go to battle in Island War. These classes will be unlocked over time. Troops will gain strength, speed, HP, and a few other stats by leveling up. To level up a certain soldier class, you just need to combine 2 groups of soldiers of the same class and level. Each character class possesses its own special skills. Besides soldiers, the game also has the presence of heroes. However, this feature has not been implemented yet.

2. Defend the main house to win

House is a building that you need to protect closely and you can upgrade the main house to increase HP, as well as unlock new boats, new structures . To protect the main house on the island, you can Build a lot of works and upgrade them with wood such as barracks, walls, turrets, gold mines .
