

It doesn't really matter to bring home because there are some of these things to save, it's cheap and extremely useful

Bringing home a job turns out to be simple if you already have these items, buy online ship to bed without affecting the purse.

Wireless mouse

Many people have a habit of using only the built-in touchpad on laptops for all jobs. However, the truth is that using an additional mouse will speed up the work several times. The clicks are also more accurate, and many operations are optimized for the computer interface, saving quite a bit of time.

Switch to the mouse to speed up the work!

Currently, you can buy good quality wireless mice at an inexpensive price, for example, Xiaomi's price is only 200,000 VND, or from Logitech, it is only over 100,000 VND.

Wireless keyboard

Many laptops today offer the advantage of having a light and thin body that cuts down on the keyboard experience, which can easily cause hand fatigue. So you should spend a little extra money to buy an external keyboard, and if you also attach a wireless mouse, the more convenient. Especially for those who have to work a lot with the number of checks, it is necessary to add an external keyboard with the convenient NumPad set as shown below.

Wireless keyboard can be used for PC, laptop and SmartTV as well.

In addition, if you work at a crowded home, you can also choose the type of keyboard to reduce noise so that the rattle from morning to night will not affect other members. This type is called the Pantograph keyboard, priority on quietness and lightness. Other types include a good water-proof Membrane keyboard, durable mechanical keyboard, 'palm-throttle', or capacitive keyboard that's both silent and durable.

The price of wireless keyboards is quite good. It is best not to buy anything under 200,000 VND with unknown brand. Just choose to buy about 400,000 or more, such as Logitech MK240 for example.

Electronic towels

Wiping electronics requires specialized towels to avoid damage.

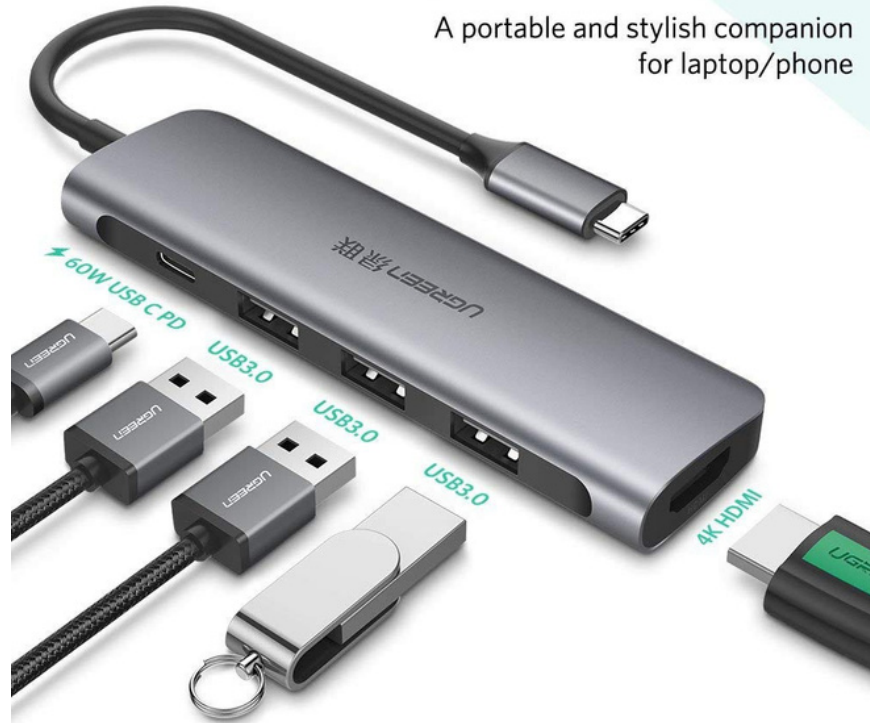

In fact, at home or at work, you need to clean electronics after a period of use. You can buy towels that have special solutions for machines, or dry towels with super soft cloth like 3M, cost only a few tens of thousands each.

USB-C Hub

Most ultra-light laptops currently have reduced ports. Therefore, the demand for USB Hub is increasing.

5-IN-1 USB C HUB

A portable and stylish companion
for laptop/phone

If you're using the new Macbook Air line, the port splitter is an indispensable item.

If you want to save money or not in high demand, you can buy USB-C Hub divided into several USB-A ports, additional HDMI ports, headphone ports, memory card slots . Or else, there are built-in types. to dozens of different ports, all for easy connectivity to other peripherals.

If you buy a simple USB hub, the price is also cheap, maybe just over 100,000 VND as Hoco's models. If you want to have a lot of other types of ports, you need to invest from 500,000 VND or up to millions if you want to ensure quality in the long run.

Brackets for laptops

It's also a problem of laptops that are too thin - the feeling of using them for long will cause hand fatigue, neck strain because the screen and keyboard are too low. So the base for laptops is also an item should work at home.

Brackets just help heat dissipation, comfortable typing without worrying back, neck pain because you have to bend down to look at the screen for hours.

This dish is too simple, so it can be used only a few tens of thousands, but if you have a little extra, you should buy all kinds of wooden or metal brackets that support heat dissipation, change the construction angle or fold . for example, products of Moft, for example, the price has now decreased to more than VND 400,000.

Webcam

If you have to work from home, chances are you'll have to attend regular online meetings. For anyone with a laptop, no problem, but if you use a PC, you need a webcam.

Using a PC, you need to have a good Webcam for online meetings.

There are many brands selling webcams in Vietnam at present, but Logitech is popular and has a good price. Their price ranges from 500,000 to 700,000 VND, all support HD resolution, 720p is sharp enough, with microphone recording and works well with all popular video call applications such as Skype, Zoom or Facetime

Bluetooth signal generator

Most regular desktops don't come with Bluetooth built in, and you'll need to buy an extra transmitter to plug it into a USB or headset port to use it with a mouse, keyboard or wireless headset.

For AirPods to work with a PC, this is needed.

The price of this dish ranges from several tens of thousands up to millions of dong. However, most of the low-priced ones under VND 200,000 do not bring good quality, easy to break, interference . If you only need to listen to music through wireless headphones, you can buy Roman J205 transmitter for only About VND 250,000, or models from Xiaomi, Baseus or Remax are also just a bit more.

3D sitting cushions

Not everyone has nice and comfortable working desks and chairs at home, and they are not cheap. Therefore, buying an extra pad is enough to make it comfortable.

Sitting all day requires butt pad like this to be tireless.

There are many types of online searches, but WeBuy has tried this breathable 3D cushion, Made in China, but the unexpected use, sitting on the egg is not broken as advertised. Except for not looking very well, it is well worth the price of 200,000 VND.

Hand blender

The office ladies go to work or like to order fruit juice, smoothies online . about drinking for beautiful skin, but with the current situation, the restaurant has closed a lot, shipping things is not as easy as before, so if there are more Hand blender to make drinks is much easier and economical and hygienic.

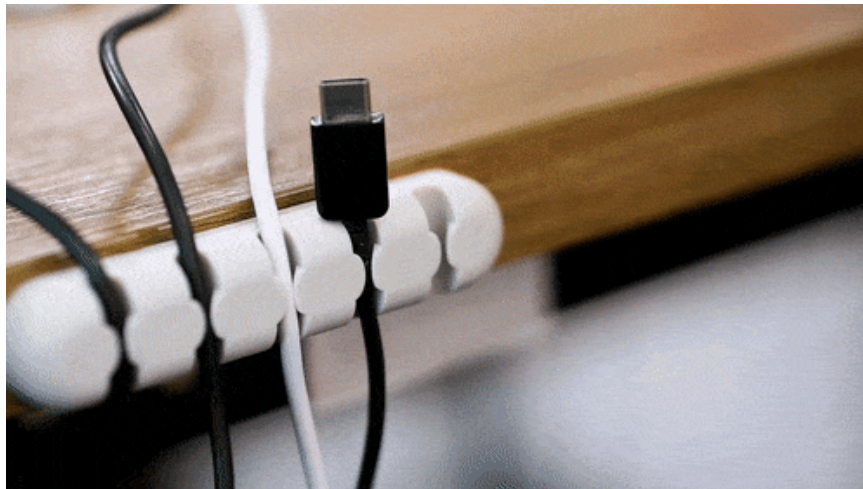

The husband and wife bought it best always!

You can find this Meet Juice hand-held blender, priced at only VND 200,000 and certified by WeBuy 'enough to use' - not very healthy, but still good for the price. If you want to buy genuine goods, quality assurance and warranty, you can refer to the type of Lock & lock, the price of about 800,000 VND, foldable but durable.

Cable retention sticker

In addition to laptops, we also have phones, tablets, wireless headsets . everything needs constant charging. Not much, but the table was as tangled as jumble because of countless types of cables.

No need to worry about messing around, just focus on working.

The solution now is a rubber patch, which sticks to the side of the table and has small slots that help keep the cables from falling to the ground, both easy to manage and to help prevent damage. The price of this dish is also cheap, about several tens of thousands of dong. WeBuy tried and confirmed it was worth buying.
