1. Select grounding location for map loot:

Before deciding to land down a certain location, choose an ideal place for many devices and possibly weapons. There are some good places for you to jump though:

1. Safe Store: where there are many things like helmets, backpacks, rifles and sniper rifles.
2. Research Building: contains a number of basic weapons for people to start playing. We will have Thomson and M4A1 guns and add some types of equipment like helmets, Level 3 backpacks.
3. Bitter Lake: home to many high-end equipment.
4. Training Base: This is considered the ideal place to land because it contains many items to help you easily win later.
5. Rust Bay: a variety of gun locations, various types of equipment.
6. Thermal Power: this place is a safe landing place, but there are also fewer equipment than others.

However, players need to pay attention to the 'delicious' locations, there are many things to loot, similar to having many opponents lurking around there. Be careful in taking things and looking closely around.

2. Prepare to parachute:

After having selected the parachute location, the player needs to calculate the distance between the point of flight and the position to jump down as short as possible. We will choose the perpendicular direction between the landing line and the ground position. During the jump you need to turn on the map and rotate the arrow and point the character to point perpendicular to the location to land.

Note when the yellow arrow is straight with the red line perpendicular, then jump down.

3. Technique for fastest parachute jump:

When the yellow arrow is straight with the red line, you need to perform the parachute operation. Jump operation is to press the scroll button to the left to rotate the character so that it goes straight to the ground. Then press and hold until the speed reaches 210 km / h. Keeping parachute speed is 34 km / h (maximum).

4. Technique to parachute farthest:

The jump operation is the horizontal falling direction, then hold the left key so that the character flies straight at 162 km / h until parachuting at 34 km / h.

Skydiving in Rules Of Survival seems simple, but the player also needs to have the technique and skydive tips to be able to choose a convenient landing location, which can loot more gear for the later battle journey. Initially keep yourself safe when you land and search for your own equipment to advance to the survival war in Rules Of Survival.
