Kalista DTCL season 9 has to compete with many generals in her clan to have a key position in the middle of the game.

Kalista DTCL season 9 has to compete with many generals in her clan to have a main position in the middle of the game, or faster, right from the beginning if you're lucky, you already have Kalista.

Champions that Kalista must compete with in the late game include Yasuo, Kai'Sa from DTCL Challenger , and Gwen from the Shadow Isles. But Kalista will cost less so you can roll more easily than the other 4-gold champions. If you are planning to roll Kalista in the middle of the game, please scroll down below.

Kalista's items are very diverse, in which you can get attack support items such as Giant Power, Electric Knife, Rage Bow, Hand of Justice, Giant Slayer and especially Rage Blade. Some equipment Other supports like Blood Sword are also very suitable.

DTCL Kalistar lineup, build Kalista TFT season 9

"Little Ly Flying Knife"

This is the squad that many gamers are using to climb ranks, it combines Shadow Isles and Challenger together. With Kalista as the main force along with Kai'Sa, Ryze, if he belongs to the Shadow Isles portal, will be able to revive the champions in the team.

On the tank line, you will have Shen as the main champion next to Maokai, Irelia, Yasuo and Gwen will provide damage support next to the tank line.

6 Shadow Isles

If you go in this direction, you must get Senna and get the Shadow Isles seal or activate the buff from the new technology upgrade to activate 6 Shadow Isles. The main generals will be Kalista, Shen and Yasuo. In which Shen will be the main tank champion, Gwen can also be an additional damage support champion. Meanwhile, Senna both deals additional damage and adds attack speed to the team.

Challenge

It's the same, but you will complete your team more easily with 6 Challenges. Challengers are enough to complete the 6 Challenges mark and there are obviously 2 slots left for you to add other champions, depending on who you see more at the table, you should add them to your squad.

There are many sources of damage here, including Yasuo, Kaisa, Kalista, Gwen, and the tank line will let Warwick, Sett and Irelia absorb damage. If you activate the Challenge buff or earn a Challenge Seal, you can withdraw Samira and use another champion at the end of the game.
